It's a Truly, Yuley Christmas Wish...

By MARIE MONAHAN

RING THOSE BELLS & deck the halls,
With unpaid taxes, wall-to-walls,
Swimming pools & barbecues,
Cracks in picture-window views.
Yellowjackets, gophers & toads,
Spreeways, freeways, jam-cram roads.
IN houses trimmed with outdoor lights,
Now rest ye all, suburbanites!
FROM meets, petitions, give a pause
To greet that good chap Santa Claus.
Trail poison oak with mistletoe,
From Walnut Creek to Alamo.
To Canyon, Rheem, Moraga, so forth,
All our Christmas wishes go forth.
CHEERIO to mamas weary,
Sisters, brothers, papas bleary.
MAYORY CHRISTMAS, city mayors,
Dramateurs, Diablo Players.
County Sheriff, Highway Patrol . . .
Never mind the protocol!
PEACE on earth to supervisors,
Gas station, condominium despisers.
The Working Couple, apartment dwellers,
County clerks & bright bank tellers.
RICH MAN, poor man, octogenarian,
Senior Citizen, bookworm, librarian.
Wishes GOBS & by the oodles,
To Vets with whom we park our poodles.
LOLs who like stray cats, Republicans & Democrats,
Twinkle, twinkle, Eastern Star,
Lions, Moose & D.A.R.
Soroptimists, B.P.O.E.
Pacific Tel, P.G. & E.
League, Women Voters, Elks, Rotarians!
Duck hunters, deer hunters . . . & vegetarians.
I.O.O.F., A.F.S. . . & UNICEF . . .
Little League coach, ump & ref.
MAY Santa's sleigh land with a thud,
Rapid Transit, East Bay Mud,
Carpenters & cabinet makers,
Builders, buyers, butchers, bakers.
Bankers, brokers, Maitre d's,
Waitresses with pretty knees.
JUNIOR LEAGUE & Hospital Branches,
All the Nuts on walnut ranches,
Used car salesmen, super mart clerks,
Cooks & chefs & soda jerks.
Clothiers who dress real snazzy,
MUSIC men who play real jazzy,
Arty folk who sculpt & paint,
Smarty folk who really ain't.
JUDGE & JURY, District Attorney,
May Rudolph find you on his journey,
By T-Bird, station wagon, jet,
He's sure to get to Lafayette,
Orinda, Concord, Pleasant Hill . . .
(For stockings full YOU foot the bill!)
TINKER, tailor, county jailer,
Postmen all, poor tardy mailer,
ON & ON the rhyming goes,
For swimmers, golf & tennis pros.
For skiers who don't know what hit 'em,
Bowling fans & bug that bit 'em.
DAIRY men who bring the milk,
Cleaners, caterers, all that ilk.
Private Secty., Girl Friday, Steno,
Public Notary, take a memo!
MERRY CHRISTMAS, Sheriff's posse.
Horsemen's Association, especially hossey.
Brown-eyed cows, however bossy,
LITERATI & eggheads mossy.
The time has come, the walrus wails,
To share the cup, to toast wassails,
To Educators, tutors, teachers,
Doctors, dentists, lawyers, preachers.
Slide rule experts, tax computers,
Greyhound bus, relax commuters!
Ladies who sell hose & hats,
Hotels, motels, laundromats.
Pizza parlors, local pubs,
Bridgey groups & Country Clubs,
Y.M.C.A. . . . Y.W., too!
We drool another Yule to you.
TO CITY COUNCIL we are wishin',
Same to you, Planning Commission.
A great big Thanks & lots of cheers,
Christmas Bureau & volunteers,
Volunteers of all variety,
Debutantes & High Society . . .
ONE MORE WISH before we go,
For former Easterners, a bit of snow.
Before we stop, before we leave,
A truly Yuley Christmas Eve.
What we really WANT to say—is
MERRY CHRISTMAS ALL THE WAY!

The More, the Merrier

THE STOCKINGS are hung by the chimney with care at the Gordon Martin home on Hacienda Circle where the tree, this year decorated by the five Martin children, "never looked better," according to mother Maryly.

The traditional family gathering of grandparents and cousins, uncles and aunts will take place both Christmas Eve and Christmas Day at the Martins' menage where the keynote will be the more and the merrier.

Hailing from a long line of California forebears, both Gordon and Maryly are native Bay Areans, with Gordon having that rare distinction of having "grown up" in Orinda. He's lived here since 1928 when School Days meant the one and only Orinda Union High School and high schools were non-existent. A graduate of the University of California, an avid tennis player and golfer, Gordon is vice-president of the Atlas Foundry and Manufacturing Company in Richmond.

BEHIND THE wheel of the family wagon is Maryly (golf and tennis buff, too) who is family chauffeur for all the activities attendant a family of five growing youngsters. There are tennis and scouting interests for Carroll, aged 12, and golf and baseball for son Jim, who's an after-school athlete addict for whatever the season's sport.

Nanette, 8, is a Brownie and like her brothers and sisters, an eager beaver on water or snow skis. Maryly, 6, together with Lynn, 3, gets a helping hand from the older ones when the family enjoys their favorite winter fun in the snow.

He'll have his place around the Christmas tree, as will the children's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Taylor of Piedmont, their paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Harold Martin, of Oakland, and visiting aunt, Miss Vibella Martin.

That's a lot of mistletoe kisses coming!

Cranston Promoted

Victor T. Cranston, 11 El Campanero, Orinda, was recently advanced to senior vice president of The Bank of California, San Francisco.

Cranston formerly was vice president.

After graduation from the University of California in 1924, he spent 23 years in the investment banking field, associated with R. H. Moulton and Company; and later Weeden and Company.

He joined The Bank of California as assistant vice president in 1950 and was advanced to vice president in December, 1952.

For the past several years, Cranston has headed the Branch Development and Bank Building Departments. He holds memberships in the Claremont Country Club, Orinda Country Club and Merchants Exchange Club.

Juvenile Hall Pleased With Boost By Sun

A call for volunteers for the County Juvenile Hall was printed in The Sun recently.

Mrs. John Nettleton of the Volunteer Auxiliary at Juvenile Hall, Martinez, is pleased with the response to the article by Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Brownies and Bluebirds.

She says, "We are especially grateful that young people in the community will take the time and effort to show other young people who are in trouble that someone does care about them.

Surely such kindness does have a far-reaching effect."

There are at present 49 children in the Cottage Group (abandoned and neglected children). There will be many more on Christmas Day, as some of the children already placed in foster homes will come in for their Christmas dinner.

If there is enough money in the kitty or enough new presents available, each child may receive a personal gift.

The big problem is still the lack of suitable foster homes and these are most urgently needed, said Mrs. Nettleton.

Volunteers are still needed for the library committee, transportation committee, and teachers of sewing, folk dancing, etc., she added.

If you have time to give when the Christmas rush is over, please write to Mrs. Nettleton for a complete list of the hall's needs c/o Juvenile Hall, Arnold Industrial Highway, Martinez.

Joan Borden to Participate in Student Meet

Joan Borden of Orinda will be among the more than 1000 college students participating December 27-January 2 in the seventh quadrennial national student assembly of the Young Men's Christian Association, and the Young Women's Christian Association, at the University of Illinois in Urbana, according to Elaine Stuart, conference chairman.

As a participant in this "town meeting," held once in every student generation, will represent the Student Christian Association on the campus of Colorado Women's College.

Laundry Truck Rolls in House

A laundry truck crashed into the living room of the A. W. Gregersen home, 55 Acacia Drive, Orinda, at 9:20 a.m. Monday.

The driver had parked the truck in the driveway to make a delivery. He had put on the emergency brake, which was still in "on" position, according to the California Highway Patrol.

The truck landed with its front end four feet out of the building, according to CHP reports. No one was injured.

Hats Off To...

The Reverend C. Corwin Calavan of St. Stephen's

PEACE ON EARTH to men of good will like the Reverend C. Corwin Calavan, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, where the Christmas program includes many symbolic traditions of the yuletide season.

On Christmas Eve, adults will have a Service of Lessons and Carols to precede the midnight service. This Sunday at 4 p.m., the Children's Pageant will take place commemorating St. Francis of Assissi's creation of the first creche. On January 6, Twelfth Night, Epiphany will be celebrated by the Feast of Lights (representing the twelve apostles of Christ) and participated in by senior high school students.

FATHER CALAVAN, born and raised in Portland, attended the University of Oregon as well as its Law School and after winning his honors, practiced law in that area. During the war years, he was a legal officer with the U. S. Navy after which he came to the Bay Area to study for his theology degree at the Episcopal Seminary in Berkeley. Father Calavan's first parish church was back home in Portland after which he served for seven years at St. John's in Montclair before coming to Orinda.

Under his three-year guidance and leadership, the 10-year-old St. Stephen's Church at Via Las Cruces and St. Stephen's Drive, now includes a full-fledged Parish Day School, kindergarten through second grade, and new building plans to accommodate his "growing flock."

The community leader and father of four, is a man of many interests. He is a proponent of mental health, a volunteer member of the National Academy of Religion and Mental Health. Together with his wife, Frances, a native Iowan; Sharon, 18, now attending Willamette University; Charles, 17, a Miramonte senior; Nancy, 12, a Pine Grove seventh grader and Robert, nine, in fourth grade at Sleepy Hollow, Father Calavan will truly enjoy the true meaning of Christmas.

The Calavans, who believe in keeping Christmas, not rushing it, have yet to buy their tree.

Diablo Park Enlargement, Hunting Possible

An addition of over 800 acres of land to Mt. Diablo State Park is under negotiation, the Division of Parks and Beaches revealed Wednesday.

At the same time the Contra Costa Park and Recreation Council has launched a drive to prevent reclassification of the park as a recreation area.

The addition, which may be purchased by the state from the Federal Bureau of Land Management with funds granted by Captain William H. Nelson of Berkeley, is section 36, now held by the bureau for educational purposes.

According to Mt. Diablo's Robert Stuart, an old federal law required that each section 36 throughout the nation be reserved for school sites, or that funds derived from sale of the section go toward education.

SPECIFICALLY, Stuart said, the land is in three parcels, one on the north side of Mt. Diablo and two on the south side of north peak.

The parcels are suitable for hiking and picnicking, Stuart said.

The fight against possible reclassification of the entire park was announced by Hulet C. Hornbeck, president of the county council. The county contains two state units, Hornbeck explained, Mt. Diablo and Frank's Track.

The latter was recently classified as a recreation area by the State Commission.

Consideration of the classification of Mt. Diablo came up last month when the commission began an overall reappraisal of state units, according to Deputy Division Chief Jim Warren in Sacramento.

The question of Mt. Diablo was continued by commissioners in November and again last Friday at a commission meeting in Blythe, Warren said.

"THE COMMISSION indicated it wanted to consider the matter at a meeting held closer to the park itself," Warren said. A decision is expected at a meeting scheduled for January 17 in Sacramento.

A change to a recreational classification would open the park to hunting of small game, pistol and archery ranges and other activities.

Hornbeck said the council was opposed to such a change, maintaining that the park was not large enough for hunting, and that necessary clearing of sections of the land would "spoil the natural beauty of the park."

State parks, by law, consist of spacious areas of outstanding scenic or wilderness character," Hornbeck explained.

Law also provides that the parks be maintained as nearly as possible in their original or natural condition, he said.

"APPROPRIATE types of recreation are also provided for in a state park.

"A Recreation Area, however, is developed primarily for outdoor recreation," Hornbeck said. "Preservation of scenic wilderness or natural conditions is then secondary."

In order to deter the park commission from reclassification of the park, the council announced it would follow the advice of Assemblyman Jerome Waldie.

Waldie told Hornbeck last week that a strong showing of interest in preservation of the park by interested citizens would serve the interests of county and area residents.

"Letters addressed to Ed Dolder, secretary of the State Park Commission, P.O. Box 2390, Sacramento, may sway the commission," Hornbeck said.

Interested persons may also write Charles De Turk, Division of Beaches and Parks, Sacramento, he added.

THE LOCAL president pointed out that maintenance of the park in its present classification would not affect any of the present recreational uses, including horseback riding, hiking, scouting, picnicking and various youth activities.

Sportsmen's groups have apparently created some pressure for a change of the park classification. The Division's staff, however, has recommended against such a change. "The commission has followed staff recommendation in each of over 100 classifications made to date," Deputy Warren told The Sun.

It was Warren also who had the name of the heretofore elusive donor of $2500 for park expansion.

A county council newsletter issued this week had identified him as one Captain Wood of Berkeley, and described the 80 contiguous acres and the other 760 acres as "easily accessible from the park."

"The other larger area points to the need of purchasing the adjacent intervening land," the newsletter added.

Mail Car Pool Coupon Before Monday Deadline

The coupon printed above represents your last chance to join the Sun-coordinated car pools which are being set up for commuters throughout the mid-county area.

Deadline for submission of the information requested is Monday, the Sun commuter coordinator announced today.

The information which The Sun receives from you will appear in The Sun next week and the week after in order to simplify formation of car pools which will save the commuter time and money.

Mail the coupon to The Sun commuter coordinator at either address: 1001 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette or 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

Commuters are urged to consult The Suns commuter coordination lists for car pool opportunities.

In past years The Sun has helped organize car pools during bus company strikes and at other times when commuter problems seemed to be reaching new heights.

This year The Sun was prompted by numerous requests from motorists and by suggestions from the California Division of Highways.

It is hoped that increased use of car pools will decrease time-consuming traffic slowdowns on detour-ridden Highway 24.

Send in your coupon. You'll soon be a member of a car pool, saving gasoline, tires, oil and nerves.

Pick a Number; Death Lottery Begins Tomorrow

Pick a number—any number between one and 57. Starting tomorrow at 6 p.m., the California Highway Patrol opens the first of its two annual numbers games.

And if your number comes up, as it did for 57 persons over the Christmas holidays last year, you can win death. Competition is stiff, but your chances of becoming a stiff are much increased if you drink and drive.

Figures from last year indicate that over 20 per cent of the accidents during the year involved drinking.

IF YOU miss out in the death-game, it's easier to qualify for simple arrest. Your choice of numbers is from one to 9103.

If neither of these games interest you, there is an attractive alternative, but the rules are much more stringent.

It involves the realization, as J. Edgar Hoover put it this week, that "the privilege of driving an automobile is no mean responsibility."

The director of the FBI predicted 600 traffic fatalities throughout the nation from tomorrow night through Christmas night.

One of the causes, Hoover said is the "alarming percentage of motorists who apparently feel they are immune from the traffic laws.

"MANY WHO are model citizens at other times become maniacal monsters behind the wheel. Not only do they violate the rules of the road, but also a goodly portion feel they should be allowed to do so with impunity.

"Such ridiculous reasoning is a prime example of obstacles preventing a marked reduction in traffic deaths."

While Hoover calls for common reasoning as part of the safe driving game, the clergy of the state, joined by the National Automobile Club and the California Association of Insurance Agents, urges that motorists cultivate a new sense of moral responsibility for their driving.

At the same time, the Highway Patrol has announced that it will be present in full force to see that the rules of the game are obeyed.

Captain E. M. Jelich announced this week that the CHP will concentrate on enforcement against moving violations, particularly excessive speed and drinking drivers.

"Our assignment is to reduce accidents, and the patrol will have every available man on duty over both Christmas and New Year's in a maximum effort to do so," the captain said.

Such efforts by the CHP have marked results in reducing traffic accidents and fatalities, but inevitably, there will be a long list of casualties.

Damage Suit Filed for $350,000

Parents of 12-year-old Terry MacDonald of Orinda filed a $350,000 suit against a hobby kit manufacturer and its seller. The claim stated that the boy's eyes were damaged by a mixture of cement and lime in the kit.

According to the suit, Patrick, son of Lt. and Mrs. Ivan MacDonald, 18 Monte Veda, had his eyes injured when "grout" squirted into his face as he opened the plastic container. The suit claims permanent damage has been done to at least one of the boy's eyes.

Named as defendants were Renwal Products Inc., New York and Sprouse-Reitz Company.

The suit, filed by attorney Henry Clausen of San Francisco, said the youth opened a package of "Genuine Mosaic" last July 12 and it flew into his eyes, causing shock and clouding of the left cornea.

Resuscitation Fails to Revive

The Orinda Fire Department attempted resuscitation on a 72-year-old Walnut Creek man for 25 minutes Wednesday night at the Standard Oil Station, 80 Moraga Way, Orinda.

The man, Manoog Arkelian, was pronounced dead on arrival at Kaiser Foundation Hospital, Walnut Creek, where he was taken by ambulance at 8:10 p.m.

Arkelian was a passenger in a car driven by Robert Arabian, Walnut Creek. Arabian noticed that Arkelian was slumped on his side and not responding to questions as he drove on Highway 24, between El Nido and the Charles Hill overpass.

He pulled into the Standard station at Orinda and called the fire department. The coroner's autopsy report is not completed. The body was taken to Hull's Mortuary, Walnut Creek, pending arrangements.

Arkelian resided at 221 Sierra Drive.

INSPECTING the site for the new crosswalk in conjunction with the bus turnout are Merle Brown, James S. Ceragioli, state highway department's right-of-way agent, and Clarence Betz. Brown, Betz and Ken Courtright (not pictured) represented the Orinda Chamber of Commerce. The turnout will again be put out to bid in the spring of 1963. Last September's bids were too high. $6 Million Condominium Is Over Last Hurdle—County OKs Plan

ORINDA ASSOCIATION'S new officers of the board of directors look over agenda for new year with outgoing president Eric Nielsen (center). Officers elected at a board meeting Monday night are, from left: James Keating, secretary; A. L. Peterson, vice president; William Brobeck, treasurer, and Harry Fledderman, president. Duffel-Smoot Will Start First 150 Units in March

The $6 million condominium adjacent to Miramonte High School jumped over the last county hurdle Tuesday night.

The board of adjustment of the county planning commission, at a closed hearing, approved the land use permit for the 303-unit condominium. The last public hearing had been the previous Wednesday.

In June, Duffel-Smoot Companies, with offices in Orinda and Rheem, announced their plan to build the $6 million condominium.

AFTER SEVERAL hearings before the planners—some hotly contested by members of the community—the board of adjustment finally approved the site plan Tuesday night.

Work on the project will begin March 1, according to Joe Duffel, spokesman for the owners, Duffel-Smoot Companies and Jack Snow.

The first 150 units have a target date of July for completion, according to Smoot.

THE ONE-, two- and three-bedroom apartments will cost from $14,500 to $25,000, Smoot said. The largest units will contain 1650 square feet of floor space.

Three swimming pools, a lagoon, a 4500-square-foot recreation building and landscaping with underground utilities will be included in the initial phase.

Architect Larry Freels' plans were taken under study by the board of adjustment of the planners last Wednesday night. The board stated at this public hearing that it wanted to study the plans before reaching a decision.

'Star' Beheld In Heavens Awes Residents

About 2000 years after a bright star appeared to shepherds and led three wise men to the birthplace of the Christ child, another guiding star flashed across the evening sky to awe thousands of persons in the Bay Area.

The great plume of white, green and rose colored light seen by local residents at 5:26 p.m. Tuesday was the effect of after-dark sun rays on the vapor trail of an Air Force rocket carrying a "guiding star" navigational aid for ships and submarines.

A huge fireball also reported was simply the separation of the Vandenberg Air Force Base rocket's first and second stages at about 35,000 feet, the Air Force said Wednesday.

Deputies Investigate Rash Of Mid-County Burglaries

More than $1000 in cash and an equal amount of heavy equipment and jewelry were reported stolen in a rash of burglaries this week according to sheriff's reports of the mid-county area.

A bag containing $580 in cash and checks was stolen from the Orinda Shell Station. Owner Paul H. Carr of 36 Loma Vista Drive, Orinda, told deputies someone forced open a door to the station. He said the bag was hidden where only an employee or former worker would be likely to look.

Madeline Albert, operator of The Party Shop, 1511 Cypress Street, Walnut Creek, told deputies $561.70 was stolen from her daughter's car. The money was secreted behind the front seat. The burglary occurred either while the car was parked, unlocked, near the Albert home at 142 Gordon Road, Walnut Creek, or on Thomas Lane in Pleasant Hill, where Mrs. Albert had gone to visit friends, the reports indicated.

A bedroom chest in the home of James Elrod, 1797 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek, was stripped of $500 worth of jewelry including two gold watches, jewelled pins, earrings, cuff links and a bracelet and lockets.

Two construction firms suffered losses this week. The Stolte-Early Company, Orinda, reported a chainsaw worth nearly $400 was taken from a toolshed near Sunnybrook Road, Lafayette.

The McReynolds Trucking Company, Oakland, reported a $500 impact wrench stolen from a truck parked near a job on Old Tunnel Road, Orinda.

Roos/Atkins Signs Lease For WC Store

A $1 million Roos Atkins department store will be completed in Walnut Creek by fall of next year, it was announced this week.

A lease signed Monday by the chain with MacDonald Products Company gave the firm rights of undetermined length to 17,000 square feet of Broadway Shopping Center.

The store will be located on Broadway, across the street from Capwell's.

The building, designed by Robert B. Liles, will consist of two stories.

Couple Arrested As Narcotics Men Confiscate Loot

A Danville truck driver and a clerk are in county jail after state and local narcotics officers smashed down a door Monday night to confiscate a supply of illegal drugs.

Arrested were Robert Ghimenti, 24, and Elsie E. Rodriguez, also 24.

Ghimenti slammed the door of his home, at 230 Hartz Avenue, in the face of officers who had a warrant to search the premises. Reports of the sheriff's office say investigators broke the door down just as Ghimenti was flushing something down the toilet.

Further search of the house disclosed a supply of marijuana, heroin and "pep" pills as well as a kit of injecting narcotics.

Both suspects were booked for investigation of possession of narcotics and the narcotics kit. Miss Rodriguez was also held for violation of probation, on a previous theft conviction.

Fledderman to Head New Board On Orinda Assn.

Harry Fledderman was elected president of the Orinda Association at a board meeting Monday night at the Orinda School at 8 p.m.

Other officers who were elected are: A. L. Peterson, vice-president; James Keating, secretary; and William Brobeck, treasurer. Both Keating and Brobeck are incumbents. Directors Jack Cutter and Bruce Hoffe will continue their terms of service on the board. Three new directors will round out the board.

THE NEW directors, elected this month, are: James R. Lucas, Walter Treanor and James J. Halloran.

The terms of Eric Nielsen, Arnold Anderson, Paul Fanning and A. L. Peterson expired this year. Peterson was re-elected.

"It was a great pleasure and a privilege to have served with the 1962 board," said Eric Nielsen, outgoing president. "We accomplished a few things; and I'm sure that if the new board is only half as cooperative as the board I had, 1963 will be a very successful year for the association."

THE NEW president, Harry Fledderman, served as vice-president of the board last year. Before that he was chairman of the association's civic affairs committee for two years. This committee is the association's principal advisory group.

In Orinda's unincorporated community, the association is considered as "the voice of the people." It has over 2000 members. Since the association was established shortly after World War II, as successor to an earlier improvement group, the volunteer group has consistently represented the interests of the community in Martinez, seat of county government.

College Denies McCunn Charges In Reply to Suit

Charging Drummond McCunn with failure to perform "a substantial portion" of his duties in the Contra Costa Junior College District, the district filed an answer to the former superintendent's $112,522 suit Monday.

The Contra Costa Superior Court was asked to turn down McCunn's plea for "unpaid" salary, retirement benefits and auto allowance. The answer, denying all of the claims the administrator made after he was dismissed June 30, was filed in Martinez one day short of the court's deadline.

The contract with the district "imposed on McCunn the duties of the supervising and managing all personnel, educational and business matters pertaining to the operation of the district and to serve as chief executive officer of the governing board," the answer said.

McCunn's contract was to have run until July 31, 1965.

The district denied that McCunn had no alternative for income other than benefits from the California State Teachers Retirement System.

"He could have obtained other suitable employment, and has wilfully failed, neglected and refused to do so," the answer claimed.

Mrs. Lawrence Heir to Eighth Of $40 Million

Mrs. Amy Bowles Lawrence of Orinda is one of the eight heirs of the fabulous $40,000,000 Miller-Lux estate, soon to be distributed, it was announced this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence reside at 220 Glorietta Road, Orinda. He is a celebrated atomic medical expert at the University of California, Berkeley; and brother of the late Ernest Lawrence.

Stores Open 2 More Nights

The majority of Orinda's stores will be open tonight and tomorrow night, according to Ed Amatrone, president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce.

Doors will be open until 9 p.m. for the convenience of Orindans who wish to do last-minute shopping, according to Amatrone.

Sunday night and Christmas Eve, the doors will close at 9 p.m.

'Dreaming of A Sunny Xmas'

"I'm dreaming of a sunny Christmas," sing the natives. And it looks as if the weatherman is going to give it to Orinda after a rainy week. Total rainfall this year is 23.24.

Following are the weekly readings:

	High	Low	Rain
Friday	65	52	.08
Saturday	65	52	.98
Sunday	55	51	.60

Moraga Memo

By JANE PUTNAM

Beep! Santa's Jeep's Comin'

THREE OR FOUR jeeps will be revved up by Santa and ready to take off from the Rheem fire station Sunday at 10:30 a.m.

Volunteer and regular firemen will man the wheels and Santa suits to distribute gifts through the streets of Moraga to all good l'il kiddies —and some bad ones. The jeeps' routes will cover the entire Moraga Fire District. This includes all of Rheem, Diablo Estates, Orchard Dell, Rutherford Park, Ivy Drive, Lincoln Estates.

In Santa's big sack will be: walnuts donated by Utah Construction Company; candy canes, bought by money raised at the Volunteer Firemen's Ball; fire prevention books by Hartford Insurance Company.

The happiest tradition, Santa riding his jeep, started a dozen years ago with one Santa Claus and 50 canes. This year, it will take four Santas to distribute the 2000 canes bought by the department.

Our fire chief may be the skinniest, scrawniest Santa in the county — but who cares so long as he has the biggest heart?

And another part of his anatomy remained unscathed when he took a short cut from the upper story of his house through the floor and lower ceiling. He was doing some remodeling on his Baitx Road home when suddenly — another "do-it-yourselfer" did it.

* * *

NEW OFFICERS for the Moraga Volunteer Firemen's Association are: Bill Lance, president; Lee Coffin, vice president, and Joe Navone, secretary-treasurer.

Retiring president is Victor Pagliero and retiring secretary is Walt Tibbits.

And Ernie Ciri again will be one of the drivers of Santa's jeep. On Donner! On Blitzen!

POPULATION EXPLOSION in 2000-Candy-Caned-Moraga hasn't been contagious to her neighbor, Canyon. Canyon was referred to in a TV-KPIX program Tuesday at 6 p.m. as "The town that's dying." The prominent Canyonite with whom I watched the program resented the description. While the number of citizens in Canyon may be decreasing in number, they have more vinegar than ever, she insists. And who can deny this? Per person, each Canyon resident must get more space in Bay Area newspapers and TV than any other per capita.

Canyon had 120 homes about 10 years ago. Now there are 45. Van Amburg, moderator of the TV feature pointed out that one-third of Canyon's kids had genius i.q.'s. However, he sounded the somber warning that the community was in danger of being destroyed by zoning, unification, incorporation and 20th century progress.

Lori Williams, president of Canyon's Community Club, appeared on the program, and gave an Oscar-winning performance. Also appearing was the Shallys' pooch . . . and a sign "store closed for winter."

Only hope for this last stronghold . . . this little place in the woods . . . according to Amburg, is to have it made into a national park.

CANYON'S KIDS in the spotlight: Air Force Lt. Denny Shally and Naval Cadet Tim Crawford are home for the holidays . . . Denny from Sacramento, Tim from Florida. . . . The Crawfords' daughter Patricia Allene was a beauteous brunette bride recently when she became Mrs. Bruce Eugene Thompson at Santa Maria Church. A reception for 200 was at Carroll Country Club.

COMPLETION OF the honeymoon house for Heidi and Loyd Vinsonhaler at 705 Moraga Road goes on. . . . However, Army Pvt. Loyd is at Fort Gordon, Georgia where he recently completed eight weeks of military police training at the U. S. Army Training Center, Fort Gordon. Loyd, a law student, is the son of James Vinsonhaler of Lafayette. Heidi is the middle daughter of the Ray Devins.

SOAPBOX OPERA material was written by Shirley Ostrander of Donald Drive Tuesday. With husband Eb in the hospital, she decided to take son Chris to the Cut a Tree Yourself lot. Chris piled in the car with four buddies. After cutting a splendid tree at a splendid savings, Shirley's car stalled on a one-way, isolated road. She wasn't able to return the boys to their anxious parents 'til past 7 p.m. We cannot, however, call the serial "Young Widder Ostrander" since Eb returned home from the hospital Wednesday and is doing nicely, thanks.

ON THE MEND, aussi is Frank Baxter, 1015 Camino Pablo. Frank is up and around again and back to work after a three-month illness. Mrs. Baxter's mother is here for a visit.

Betty Parker and Snooks Boeger, both downed by the flu bug, are up and attem again.

PARTIES, PARTIES. Moraga Senior Horsemen's party Saturday before last was great fun for its 32 members . . . as was the gala cocktail party given by Carroll Country Club Saturday for its members.

MARCH IN JANUARY plans got underway Friday at Marini's, Rheem. Anitia Marini, local chairman of the local March of Dimes Drive, was gracious hostess at a luncheon to discuss plans for the drive. Among those attending were Chief Al Baitx, Rheen Principal Robert Trask, Richard Pauletich (coordinator for St. Mary's), Marjorie Suski, Jane Byers and Gladys Robinson. James Bassett, county publicity chairman and Mrs. Edmund Linshield, Mothers' March chairman, told many interesting facts about the organization. Like it has had the same president for 25 years . . . no scandal . . . and is staffed by volunteers except for one secretary.

COLUMNIST CAEN from across the Bay reports that the hottest item this Christmas is pool tables. He mentions the fact that every store is cleaned out, and even Brunswick, which makes the professional jobs, has sold all 50 of its $300 seven foot "home" models plus 20 of its $1500 eight foot jobs. This includes one to Novelist Erskine Caldwell (given to him for Christmas last June by gracious wife Virginia) which is the only furnishing in the "recreation room" of their Orinda home. Caen reports that the Brunswick people are flabbergasted and wonders whether the movie "The Hustler" had anything to do with the pool boom. He mustn't read "Peanuts." Lucy's mother is a devotee of the sport.

And speaking of Ersk (weren't we?) I got my Christmas present early—a fan letter from the world's most popular novelist for the interview which ran in The Sun November 30.

'TIS THE SEASON to wish you and yours a merry merry and a very very, which I do. . . . At the sound of beep! Sunday, scurry to see Santa at your curbside.

BAPTIST

"Focus of History" is the subject of Rev. Jack Sondericker's sermon for morning worship at the Moraga Hills Community Baptist Church at 11 a.m. Sunday.

The sermon will be followed by a fellowship hour when members and visitors have an opportunity to get better acquainted over a cup of coffee. Sunday school precedes the morning worship and starts at 9:45 a.m.

The regular weekly Baptist Youth Fellowship meeting is held at 7 p.m.

The Moraga Hills Church is affiliated with the American Baptist Convention and is located on Moraga Road about one-half mile north of Rheem.

EPISCOPAL

Christmas services at St. Giles' Episcopal Church, Orinda-Moraga, will be holy communion at 11 p.m. on Christmas Eve with congregational singing of carols, and holy communion at 10 a.m. on Christmas Day.

Sunday there will be holy communion at 8:15 a.m. and morning prayer and holy baptism at 9:30 a.m. Services will be conducted by the vicar, the Rev. William J. Frankhuizen. Child care is provided and Sunday school meets at the 9:30 a.m. service.

St. Giles' meets for worship at Iinland Valley School, 70 Ivy Drive, Orinda.

METHODIST

"Beatitudes for Christmas" will be the sermon topic of the Reverend George E. Berry on Christmas Sunday at the Lafayette Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road, Lafayette. Morning worship services are held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Nursery care is provided during both services.

Church school classes are held at 9:30 a.m. for all children through high school. An adult Bible class is held at 9:30 a.m. A luncheon for college-age youth of the church will be given at 1 p.m. Sunday in the Fireside Room of the Fellowship Building. A church school program will be given Sunday at 4 p.m. All are cordially invited to attend.

At 7 p.m. the youth groups of the church will go caroling.

At 11 p.m. Christmas Eve, a Christmas Eve service will be conducted. All are cordially invited to attend.

Jerry Abenth Is Pledge at Illinois

Jerry Abenth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving C. Abenth, 123 Spring Road, Orinda, was one of the 68 men who pledged a social fraternity during the fall semester at Augustana College, Rock Island, Illinois.

He is a pledge of Gamma Alpha Beta.

$60,000 Moraga School Bonds Sold

In an open bid Tuesday, $600,000 Moraga School District bonds, series B, 1962, were bought by the Bank of America. Interest rate was 3.48 per cent.

The bonds were sold in order to qualify for state aid in construction for a second addition to Camino Pablo School and a first addition to Rheem School, according to Superintendent William Knight.

APPLICATIONS for the additions at each of Moraga's two schools have been approved by the State Department of Education and local allocation board of the department of finance.

Plans are being drawn according to specifications of the Moraga School Board of Trustees, by architects Marshall, Leefe and Ehrencrantz. The board hopes to put the plans out to bid in April.

The first addition to Camino Pablo School in the Orchard Dell area is now under construction. The foundations are poured and structure of the building is being put up now. Target date for completion is May of next year.

The addition No. 1 will include two kindergarten rooms, two classrooms and a multi-use room.

ADDITION NO. 2 will include six classrooms. These will call for a science laboratory, an arts and crafts room, four regular classrooms and a multi-use classroom.

The Rheem School addition No. 1 will include five regular classrooms, a library and a multi-use classroom.

Moraga is second only to San Ramon in having the fastest growing school district in the county. Its growth has increased 35 per cent this year, according to Knight.

In addition to the building contemplated, a committee has been formed to select the site for a third school in the Moraga district.

The committee includes the board of trustees for the school district, and one member each from: school administration, Moraga Valley Community Club, county planning staff, architectural firm and a person selected at large.

Christ's Star Appears at DVC

A chance to see the Star of Bethlehem as it appeared the night of Christ's birth still remains at Diablo Valley College's Science Center planetarium.

Showings of The Christmas Sky, the college's gift to the community for the season, are to be given between now and December 29.

The presentation consists of the story of the skies of the East, told in lecture and music, as the heavens of 2,000 years ago are projected on the planetarium dome.

Lectures are given by Robert Campbell, physical science instructor at the Miramonte High School, Orinda, and Orin Norton, astronomer for the Tinsley Laboratories, Berkeley.

There is no admission charge, but the public is urged to make advance reservations with the college because of limited seating at each show.

Shows are at 7 and 8:30 p.m. tonight, Wednesday and Friday, 1:30, 3 and 7 p.m. tomorrow and next Saturday and 1:30 and 3 p.m. Sunday.

Campout Held By Troop 207

Troop 207 of Orinda held its annual beach campout on the weekend of December 8-9 at McClure Beach, near Pt. Reyes.

The 33 scouts who attended were led by Assistant Scoutmaster Russ Usinger.

All patrols were represented. One of the activities of the campout was a treasure hunt which involved the use of the compass and the Morse code.

The climax of the campout was the investiture of six candidate scouts to the Tenderfoot rank at the campfire Saturday night.

Two Week 'Crusade for Christ' to Be Held Here

Churches representing many denominations will sponsor the first Contra Costa Crusade for Christ in January.

According to The Rev. Gray Lambert, publicity chairman for the forthcoming crusade, Dr. Porter Barrington of Southern California will be crusade speaker.

Soloist will be Mr. John Webb also of Southern California.

Crusade meetings will be held nightly at the National Guard Armory in Walnut Creek beginning Sunday night, January 13, and extending through Sunday night, January 27.

All churches in the county are invited to participate in these meetings.

Any church or group wanting further information should phone either Rev. Lambert or Rev. Melvin Stone, crusade chairman.

Christmas Carols At St. Perpetua's

The story of the birth of Christ will be told in song at St. Perpetua's Church in Lafayette, Sunday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Church parishioners and friends will sing traditional Christmas carols by candlelight in the churchyard.

A Christmas tableau will be spotlighted on the hillside adjacent to the church with members of the Teen Club participating. Live farm animals will be used to add realism to the Nativity scene.

Under the direction of the pastor, Rev. John P. Quinn, Mrs. Karl Pister and Mrs. Steve Kahn, are in charge of preparations.

Music will be under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth L. Meirsten and John Peterson.

The public is invited.

St. Mark's Has 1st Christmas In Own Chapel

St. Mark's Methodist members of the Orinda-Moraga Church will be celebrating their first Christmas in a chapel of their own. Until this year the congregation gathered at Miramonte High School for worship and the work of the church was carried out in the homes of the members.

The church is now located in its first unit on a seven-acre site on Moraga Way. The Reverend John L. Dodson is minister.

The Festival of Advent and Christmastide at St. Mark's will be concluded in the annual Christmas Eve candlelight service at 7:30 p.m., Monday, at the St. Mark's Chapel, 451 Moraga Way, Orinda.

The service, to which all are welcome, will feature the singing of carols, solos and the closing service of the lighting of the candles of Christmas.

This part of the Festival is the conclusion of three major events of Advent for the church. The soloist for Christmas Eve will be Mrs. Charles Fry.

$800 Collected Here for UNICEF

"On behalf of the United States Committee for UNICEF, I would like to thank all those who helped in the drive on Halloween, and particularly the children," said Ninette Roegiers, chairman for Orinda.

The collection in Orinda amounted to almost $800 and children in need in over 100 countries in all parts of the world will benefit from your contributions, according to Mrs. Roegiers.

The total for Contra Costa County was $5,782.90 which was $782.90 more than last year. Orinda contributed $300 last year.

Participating churches this year were Orinda Community Church, St. Stephen's Episcopal, St. Mark's Methodist, Temple Isaiah and the Presbyterian Church.

Thanks are also due to the four Orinda firehouses, the librarians, and the custodians at the Sleepy Hollow and Orinda schools who saved the milk cartons for the drive, said Mrs. Roegiers.

STRAWS IN THE WIND: Already being mentioned as a possible candidate to unseat Supervisor Mel Nielsen in the 1964 county supervisor's seat for District II is bright, young Charlie Williams. A Lafayette resident, Williams is city attorney for Pleasant Hill. Among his positive convictions: incorporation and rapid transit!

IT'S JUNE in January for county employees this year. Yes, they'll get an extra day off for "California Day" making it a four-day New Year's Weekend. But only at the expense of having one day loped off their summer vacation time. That's because, according to County Administrator J. P. McBrien, the board of supervisors didn't learn of Gov. Brown's action soon enough to adopt a special ordinance creating the holiday.

HOW ABOUT a toe ring, if you can't think of something to get the little woman? You can get a sterling silver, adjustable one from the Jingring Company in Lafayette for $2. "For pretty feet," says their ad. If your wife has a bunion, forget it!

WRITING CHECKS didn't break her arm, it was making like an athlete that did it. Poor Joan Butterfield, Pleasant Hill's city treasurer, has her write arm in a sling as a result of a fall in a local ice skating rink. Payment of bills may be a little slow from that city—about six weeks or so.

GRAY FLANNEL TEXTBOOKS are the result of "insidious influence of self-appointed censorship groups," according to a story in the December issue of the Contra Costa County School Bulletin.

In a statement called, "The Student's Right to Read," the National Council of Teachers of English, at a recent annual convention in Miami, charged that "the greatest damage is done by book committees appointed by national or local organizations to pore over books solely to find sentences that advocate causes or concepts or practices these organizations condemn."

MINK COAT, ANYONE? Poor Edith Finn, a nurse in the emergency ward at Concord Community Hospital, has mixed feelings about the loot she won last month on Hugh Downs' "Concentration" show in New York.

Altogether she won three cars, wardrobes for her husband and two children, the mink, a silver punch bowl, an expresso coffee machine, and other sundries.

But all she has to show for it is the receipt for the excise tax on the mink, which she had to pay for before she left the studios!

"I suppose you could say the whole thing is more of a headache than a blessing, because I have to sell most of the stuff to pay the taxes on it. But we do hope to come out of it with one of the cars (a convertible) free and clear."

The mink, which is due to arrive with the rest of the loot within the next month, is a size 16 and Mrs. Finn will gladly let it go at its wholesale value.

"I told them I'd be happy to accept a stole instead of a coat, but I have to take the coat, want to or not," she sighed.

She thought she had a customer for the tuxedo that was part of the men's clothing she won. Her husband couldn't use it, so she requested it in the size of the prospective buyer.

Added expense: the price of the collect call from NBC informing her all the men's clothing had to be ordered in the same size!

THE "NEVERGREEN" tree in Lafayette Plaza which has been plaguing the Design Project the past three years, was finally uprooted last week. Despite all the life-saving methods they could think of, the designers had to call it quits.

The tree was planted in 1933, and after much debate about the leaning evergreen, in 1959 when the Design Project decided to refurbish the plaza, it was decided to keep the tree. But since that time, its health has been getting worse.

The tree was replaced with another of the same species, Colorado Blue Spruce — evergreen blue, that is.

WATCH IT, when you drive through Pleasant Hill. City councilmen were a little parturbed when the list of tickets for moving violations for November were read. "Only 12 citations?" muttered one city father, "they're not catching enough!"

Controller Reports County 8th in 'Value'

The total assessed valuation of property subject to local taxation in California is $33,326,967,900.

State Controller Alan Cranston said the total—up 5.6 per cent from last year—is contained in the recently published annual report on the assessed valuations and tax rates of counties.

Building Inspect Law Is Delayed

County board of supervisors held up their approval of a new building inspection ordinance for another week when building inspector Rudolph Kraintz pressed for submission of plans "in detail" from builders.

District Attorney John A. Neiedly told supervisors that Kraintz refused to agree to anything less even when the builder is supplying the inspectors himself.

While each supervisor declared it was the board's intent to make things easier for those industries constantly making construction changes, and which hire engineers to oversee the work, nevertheless they sympathized with Kraintz's problem.

The county building inspector argued that it was only with detailed plans could he tell what work was going on if he wanted to inspect himself.

Another discussion on the matter, with two board members participating will be held today and a report will be submitted to the board next week.

In other business, County Welfare Director William G. Golden told supervisors that the welfare budget is running according to schedule. The 9-8 per cent increase in November funds paid out for home relief over the October figure reflects an expected seasonal change, he said.

The board granted the sale of $60,000 worth of Moraga School bonds to the Bank of America, the low bidder of two. At 3.4861 per cent interest, total cost to the county will be $32,421.

Instructions were given to the Planning Department to organize a public meeting of planners and officials of gas station associations to discuss problems of planning of new service stations.

Approval was given to the formation of two storm drainage district zones, Zone Eight in the Walnut Creek Area, and Zone 16 in Pleasant Hill.

The appointment of a committee to consider the closing of some parts of the county to use of septic tanks or septic tanks in sub-divisions was held up one week. The delay was requested by Supervisor Mel Nielsen who needed time to add men from his area to the group.

Supervisors will study some 22 new laws or law changes for the coming session of the state legislature. They will decide Tuesday which ones to favor with their support, and then meet with State Senator George Miller Jr. and Assemblymen Jerome Waldie and John Knox to enlist their help in pushing through those proposals.

Symphony Has Debut Sunday

The premiere performance of the new Diablo Symphony will be presented on Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at Ygnacio Valley High School. Conductor is Kristian Gippo, new orchestra director at Mt. Diablo High School.

For the initial concert, Gippo has selected the following program:

A Christmas Festival by Leroy Anderson; Wedding Day At Trolaugen by Grieg; Gold and Silver Valse by Lehar; Schubert's Unfinished Symphony, and Entry of the Bojarens by Halvorsen.

Completing the program will be Corelli's Concerto Grosso, Opus 6, No. 8, for String Orchestra, and selections from Leroy Anderson's Suite of Carols for Brass and Woodwind Choirs.

No Santa Claus in Early California Christmas!

By GLADYS SHALLY

Felices Navidades! Felices Pascuas! Such were the greetings at Christmas time of the early Californians.

Christmas, as celebrated in the days of the Dons was quite different from the custom we practice today. When a Californian said "Joyous Christmas! Merry Christmas! he demonstrated it joyously and merrily.

In those days there was no Santa Claus in California; no Christmas trees or decorations, nor was it the custom to exchange gifts. But the vacaciones de Pascuas, the Christmas holidays meant a time of uproarious fiestas, a happy and noisy time with feasting, dancing and the meeting of old friends.

THE MAIN celebration was centered in the pueblos. (The people of our area belonged to the pueblo of San Jose Guadalupe.)

There was excitement when the rancheros and their families began arriving at the pueblo.

The men, elaborately clothed, rode their most spirited horses, with their ornate trappings, while the women and children, in equally colorful apparel, rode in gaily decorated carretas (oxcarts).

Each vied with the other to have the most colorful conveyance — there might be canopies of embroidered silken bedspreads, lace curtains or bright material with long, swinging fringe.

THE NEWCOMERS then paraded around the streets of the pueblo, calling Christmas greetings to occupants of adobes and to each other.

Over all the din, the church bell pealed continuously, a constant reminder to celebrators not to forget in their exuberance the reason for their celebrating.

There were no carolers on Nochebuena (Christmas Eve)—but one of the main events of the celebrations took place then: A sacred play, "Los Pastores" (The Shepherds), which was performed by local actors.

The main character was the archangel, St. Michael. The cast also included the devil, shepherds and a character called Bartolo — a lazy, wise-cracking comedian.

THE PASTORES went from house to house enacting the same scenes and usually trailed by an admiring audience of small fry who rooted for the devil. No props were used, but the players furnished their own footlights, which were candle wicks placed in jars of tallow.

The play starts sedately enough, with the shepherds tending their (imaginary) flock. St. Michael appears to announce the birth of Christ and commands them to visit the manger.

The devil pops up and tries various tricks to keep the pastores from leaving, all the while accompanied by a lazing Bartolo's remarks and jokes, which usually arouses the crowd to great merriment.

Then the angel and the devil cross (wooden) swords and engage in a vicious fight, which St. Michael, naturally, wins, and the shepherds depart.

THE DEVIL then turns to the crowd and vents his wrath on anyone within reach of the broadside of his sword. After a little by-play the actors are rewarded with little bunuelos (fritters) and fruit and go on to the next adobe.

No matter how long all this goes on, the whole populace attends "la mesa del gallo," the mass of the rooster at 3 o'clock on Christmas morning.

Later, Navidad plays, known as Pastorelas, were more dignified and subdued and all crudeness (including Bartolo) was omitted.

As far as is known the last Nativity play of this type was in 1861, after which the Americanos introduced their more peaceful way of celebrating Christmas.

Felices Navidades! Felices Pascuas!

Election Study Given Approval By Supervisors

A study of methods and equipment used by the elections division of the County Clerk's Office was ordered by the board of supervisors last week to aid in the streamlining of the county's election procedures.

The study was the suggestion of County Administrator J. P. McBrien. He explained that the survey will cover general procedure and problems of registering voters.

"It won't have anything to do with work on election day or vote-counting," he added.

On the special study committee named by the board will be representatives from the Contra Costa Taxpayers' Association, the Richmond Council of Industries, the Pittsburg - Antioch - Nichols Industrial Association, the Alameda County Clerk's Office and the San Mateo County Administrator's office.

McBrien told supervisors that the group, composed of members with office management experience, should have a report within a few weeks.

More Engineers Defend Transit

Engineering societies last week continued to endorse the Bay Area Rapid Transit District's contract with three engineering firms.

Following defense of the contract by the San Francisco Chapter of the American Society of Engineers December 12, 3 more societies informed the district Friday, that professional ethics have not been violated.

Letters from the Consulting Engineers Association of California, the Golden Gate Chapter of the California Society of Professional Engineers and the National Society of Professional Engineers were all read into the record at a San Francisco board meeting Friday.

WELL-FILLED CHRISTMAS STOCKINGS are those of pretty Penny Riser of Danville, who appears with Neil Rose of Walnut Creek in the Santa on Ice show now playing at the Kaiser Center Roof Garden Rink in Oakland.

Folk Lore of Christmas Adds to Yule Tradition

By MARIE MONAHAN

THE TRUE ADVENT wreath is one made of evergreens with four candles, two red and two white, placed in it. One candle is lighted before the evening meal on the first Sunday in Advent, or four Sundays before Christmas. This candle is extinguished after the meal is done. The second Sunday evening, two candles are lighted and so on until the fourth Sunday and on Christmas Eve when all four candles burn brightly together.

BELLS were used two thousand years before Christ in the Orient where they tolled tidings of joy as well as sad occasions. Since Christ was born, they have been used in many countries to announce His birthday. They toll the hour of 12 on Christmas Eve in Spain and in some places, are rung as the creche scene is lighted.

In some countries, Saint Nicholas carries a bell on one hand and switches in another. Santa Claus' reindeer wear sleigh bells and, chimes proclaim the start of Christmas in many places in America.

BAMBINO is the Italian word for the Baby used to represent the Infant Jesus or Christ. The most famous "bambinos" in art are the swaddled infants in terra cotta medallions, varied in form and expression, made by A. Della Robbia, for the Foundling Hospital (designed by Brunelleschi, A.D. 1419) in Florence, Italy.

The creche scene or Nativity Scene, perhaps the most beloved Christmas symbol, was first erected by St. Francis of Assissi with permission of the Pope. The Christmas Crib, made by St. Francis, was a simple manger with a doll in it to which children brought their gifts and elders their prayers.

Beside this creche, Francis and his brethren sang Christmas carols. Later, animals, borrowed from neighbors, were added to the scene, until today in homes and churches in many countries, including America, we find the scene of the Nativity depicted. The creche may be a small homemade shoe box affair—or a glorious display of exquisite art, but each one points to the lowly Babe in the manger, signifying simplicity and beauty in His Birth.

THE CHRISTMAS tree, which has been used in America fewer than a hundred years, has a fascinating legendary background. For instance, Angels chose the evergreen for the Christmas tree because it symbolized the everlasting life of Christ . . . and too, on the night of Christ's birth, all the trees in the forest blossomed and bore fruit. And more—All the trees went to the manger where the tiny evergreen was crowded into the background by the larger trees. Stars from the sky settled on the tiniest tree and it received a smile of benediction from the Babe.

Martin Luther is credited with decorating the first tree in Germany following a walk through the forest on Christmas Eve when the stars shining through the trees impressed him so much he attempted to show his family a sight just like it. Luther cut down an evergreen and decorated it with lighted candles to symbolize the stars.

The first decorated Christmas tree in England was introduced by Prince Albert, German-born husband of Queen Victoria.

Community trees throughout the nation, from the "National Christmas Tree" in Washington, D.C. lighted by the President to the "Nation's Christmas Tree" in General Grant National Park, California, where services are held on Christmas Day, give much pleasure to young and old, rich and poor alike.

The cherry tree carol tells the legend of the journey of Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem. Mary saw a tree filled with ripe cherries. When she asked Joseph to get some for her, he refused, whereupon the branches bent down so she could reach the fruit. When Joseph, now ashamed of himself, attempted to pick the fruit for her, the branches flew back so he could not reach them.

THE HOLLY and the Ivy: Holly, which grows in some form in almost every country has been used for festival decorations for centuries. In connection with Christmas, it has come to represent the crown of thorns worn by Christ when he was crucified, the red of the berries representing his blood.

Legend attributes to holly the power of warding off witches and bringing charm wherever it is used. In many yuletide songs, it was spoken of as the male while ivy signifies the female. Holly or ivy, whichever was brought into the house first, indicated which sex would rule the house that year.

In some countries the appearance of the first star on Christmas Eve is the signal for lighting lamps and beginning the Christmas Mass or festivities.

In Sweden, the "Star" children with silver stars pasted on tall white hats, visit the homes of friends. Each group makes one large silver or gold star trimmed with tinsel and a tiny bell fastened to each point of the star.

IN NORWAY, "Jule Bokker" (Christmas Goat) resembles but slightly our Trick or Treat tradition of Hallowe'en. Between Christmas and New Year's, the younger children dress up in costumes or parents' hats and clothes and promenade in little bands to nearby houses where they sing Jule sang (Christmas songs) in exchange for treats of cake and cookies.

In Ireland, groups of boys catch a wren and put it in a cage or house on a long pole which they carry as they go from house to house singing songs during which, of course, the lady of the house is invited to give them a treat.

Santa Claus, by any name, would be as welcome and our Santa Claus is a variation of the name Saint Nicholas whose festival day is December 6.

Living in the Fourth Century, according to legend, he secretly went about giving gifts to the needy. In one favorite tale, he left bags of gold for three girls who had no doweries; needless to add, all three were soon wed.

OTHER NAMES for the gift giver are Papa Noel, La Befana, Jule-nissen plus many more. Kris Kringle, for instance, comes from the German words "Christ Kind" or infant Christ, but is depicted now as a girl wearing a crown and carrying a Christmas tree. She shares honors with Knecht Rupert who gives presents to the good children and Pelsnichol (Nicholas with fur) who leaves only switches in the shoes of naughty boys and girls.

It is probably from the European custom of setting out the shoe or sabot for gifts that we derive our own ceremony of hanging up a stocking on Christmas Eve.

In Sweden, it is Jul Tomten or Tomta Jubba, a tiny old man, who leaves the gifts. A bowl of bread and milk is always left for him to enjoy though the family cat is often accused of doing the act for him.

MISTLETOE in the house? These greens for decorations came to us from the Romans who used them during the winter solstice or Saturnalia. At this time of year, late December, the Druids of ancient Britain gathered mistletoe for their sacred rites.

THE PLANT WAS believed to be so powerful that enemies meeting under it would lay aside their weapons and embrace. Hence our custom of kissing under the mistletoe.

Think we're rushing Christmas? Maybe we should take a tip from the Norewegian people. In that country, the tree and the presents are not even seen until Christmas Eve when after the tree is trimmed, the children are brought in to view the beautiful sight under which simple presents have been placed.

The tree is then kept standing and decorated through most of the month of January. You can't rush a Norwegian, you know. (I still haven't mailed my Christmas cards!)

Tourist, Put This Dream in Your Pipe: Orient Holidays

One April day you step aboard a luxurious BOAC Boeing 707 jet. As you settle into your seat the plane's heavy door swings shut on the cares of the western world.

The engines' moan rises to a roar, you feel the pull of the earth and then . . . you're airborne, en route to the Orient.

No, it is not a pipe dream, but the opportunity of a tourist's lifetime: The Sun Orient Holiday.

NO DREAM could be planned so carefully for your comfort, according to tour hosts, Eleanor and Herman Silverman.

The 20-day jaunt through the East provides jet air travel, land travel by Pacific Pathways and deluxe accommodations at every stop, all for only $1429.

Costs for the holiday are based on air fares which will be in effect on April 1, the Silvermans said this week.

Typical springtime days in the Orient will include:

Sunday, April 21: You've overslept a bit here at the new Japan Hotel in Tokyo, after having joined your hosts for an arrival dinner the previous evening.

But, no matter, the morning is yours to spend as you please.

A CUP of tea in a quiet garden may be your cup of tea this morning. Or a stroll along the bustling streets of the world's largest city.

In the afternoon your Pacific Pathways guide takes you to the Lorakuen Gardens with their landscaped ponds, to Ueno Park, a popular recreational center.

And then into the hectic midway atmosphere of the Asakusa Amusement Center. Returning to your hotel, you find your hosts have invited you to a party for the evening.

SUNDAY, April 28: You are in Kyoto, ancient capital of Japan, when the sun awakens you this morning. With a full day before you, you join your guide for a 26-mile drive to the south, to Nara.

Here in what, from the year 710 to 784, was the national capital, you learn that this town of temples and shrines was also the cradle of Japan's arts, literature, industries and crafts.

Special attractions for you in Nara are the Fushimi Inari Shrine and Todajii Temple where you will see the great bronze buddha, Daibutsu.

Some 400 tame deer then pose for your camera in nearby Deer Park.

Then, back to Kyoto for a quiet stroll through the gardens of the Daigo Samboin Temple.

SATURDAY, May 4: A ferry from Kowloon carries you over mist-laden waters, across which you see Hong Kong Island.

First, a motor tour, and then a cable car takes you to the top of Victoria Peak for a panoramic view of this international harbor.

Next, a visit to the Happy Valley Racecourse, then through the Tiger Balm Gardens, Aw Boon Haw Mansions and the Aberdeen Fishing Village.

Sometime during this busy and exciting day you have taken advantage of your luncheon reservation at the famous Floating Restaurant.

The evening is your own, and perhaps you spend it quietly—musing on what you have seen, wondering how it will feel to approach the borders of Red China on the morrow.

Further information about The Sun Orient Holiday is available from your travel agent or The Sun offices.

Reservations and information may be obtained by calling The Sun at 284-4444 or 934-5000.

Ask about tour options, including a seven-day extension to Manila, Singapore, Bangkok and Jahore—offered by The Sun for only $277. Or a shorter 15-day trip, including Japan alone, for $1171.

Santa on Ice Runs Through Christmas Eve

The Santa on Ice show ends a three-week run at Kaiser Center in Oakland on Monday.

In the title role, the show stars Neil Rose of Walnut Creek, operator of the Ice Rink here and formerly with the Sonja Henie Ice Revue.

Rose has also appeared in motion pictures and on television.

Skating with him are Penny Riser of Danville and John Booth of Walnut Creek.

Miss Riser was voted "Miss American Youth of 1962".

Booth, who makes his professional debut in Santa on Ice, plans to join the Ice Follies next June.

Rose has produced the show, which is presented free of charge at the Kaiser Center Roof Garden Ice Rink today at 12:30, 1:30, 6, 7, and 8 p.m. and tomorrow at 12:30, 1:30 and 2:30 p.m.

No shows are scheduled for Sunday.

The show is sponsored jointly by The White House and Kaiser Center.

Another Dog Has His Day Under 5 Suns

A housebroken male AKC Sheltie pup, described as a top obedience or show prospect, was sold by J. Naviaux, 1243 Cape Cod Way, Concord, with only one Sun want ad.

L. Achembach, 150 Grove Circle, Pleasant Hill, sold a Packard Bell maple console television set with one Sun want ad.

And a single Sun want ad sold a deluxe automatic gas range with center griddle—and and Italian accordian—for D. M. Rodmon, 209 Rheem Boulevard, Moraga.

These are typical Sun want ad results.

We call them "success stories," and the success in the story is largely due to the 5-in-1 impact of a Sun want ad.

A single Sun want ad appears in all five Sun publications: the 59,000 - circulation Sun Shopping News and the subscription newspapers, The Orinda Sun, The Pleasant Hill Sun, the Walnut Creek Sun and The Lafayette Sun.

A 14-word Sun want ad costs only $1.60, even less for multiple runs.

Pintatas Prized at Festival

ORCHESTRA OF fifth graders at Glorietta School serenaded the Spanish class' festival. They are: Barbara Hallanger, Thomas Wylie, leader and organizer, Bob Liebold, Allan Sindelar, Ricky Dowling, Jim McCarthy, Jacky Dunn, Rick Talbot, Jon La Spada and Rod Jeaks.

SPANISH TEACHER and language coordinator of the Orinda Union School District, Mrs. Esther Jhonson, right, shows children how to crack open a Santa Claus pinata at Glorietta School. Two of the pinatas were awarded as prizes to the Spanish classes. A third pinata was given by the students to Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

PINATA PRIZE is eyed by hopeful students of Mr. Ferro's fifth grade, Miss Windrem's and Mr. Pilcher's classes at Sleepy Hollow School. Kneeling: Joan Coffey and Sam Scaggs. Standing: Scott Carter, Doug Loshbaugh and Joanna Guidotti.

A TAPE recording made by the Spanish teacher, Mrs. Esther Johnson, is used in class. Demonstrating the method at Sleepy Hollw School is Miss Nancy Windrem. Pupils are Jean Simpson, Steven Dondero, Lori Chapman, Larry Ferguson, Sara Ellison and Bill Stone. Sun photos by Lee Combs

'I'm Dreaming of a Spanish Christmas'

The Christmas season in the Orinda schools was celebrated this year in the fourth through the sixth grades with dialogues learned in Spanish.

One dialogue described a pinata party. At this fiesta, a large container filled with candy and small toys fancily decorated with crepe paper is suspended from above on a cord which can be lowered. One child at a time is blindfolded and tries to break the pinata with a long stick (palo). Eventually one child is allowed to break it, the contents fall and the rest is human nature!

A SECOND dialogue describes the Wise Men and "Little Christmas" celebrated in Spanish speaking countries on January 6. Here the children discuss the gifts that the Wise Men will bring them thus building on their vocabulary.

"Los Reyes Magos," the equivalent of Santa Claus, distribute gifts to the children on the eve of January 6, "Little Christmas" . . . as they did to the Christ Child. The children leave their shoes for the Wise Men to fill.

So much interest was expressed by the students and teachers that Mrs. Guida Senram, district Spanish teacher and Ester Johnson, foreign language coordinator, decided to award pinatas for the best performance given by the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

The criteria for judging was as follows: memorization of Christmas dialogue, good pronunciation, enunciation and intonation, being able to rearrange the dialogue sentences in other situations, total class participation and enthusiasm.

THE PLANS backfired!

"It was almost impossible to make a selection. Students were all so wonderful, so well prepared, so enthusiastic," said Mrs. Johnson.

"Two pinatas were awarded in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Even then it was difficult to make a selection!"

A special pinata was awarded to Warren Arnold's sixth grade class at Glorietta. His class, in addition to learning the dialogues decided to make their Spanish learnings more real by following through the holiday festivities as celebrated by most of the Latin American countries.

"CHISPA," a third pinata, will be donated by all fourth, fifth and sixth graders in the Spanish department to the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Tom Wyle was given the assignment of organizing a musical presentation for the Christmas program. He decided to use the theme from Las Posadas.

He did not have far to go. For within his own sixth grade, he had the makings for a seven-piece marching processional band.

Much effort was given to the numerous practice sessions. Band leader Wyle transposed the music taken from Las Posadas . . . and they were on their way!

THE PROCESSION and celebration was held amidst much gaiety and enthusiasm on Tuesday afternoon at the Glorietta School. Also in the program was the humorous dance from the shores of Lake Pazcuaro in the state of Michoacan. The youngsters dressed up as old men and pretended to be so feeble and withered that they could scarcely move.

Then the dance began. Agility, endurance and muscular control was needed. The masks worn by the students . . . wrinkled cheeks, snaggle-toothed grins, stringy white hair, added much to the effectiveness of the number.

They were made by the students with the help and advise of Mrs. Florence Rossi, art district teacher.

The pinata awards were given to the following fourth grades: Mrs. Andree's at Orinda School; Miss Beverly Crother's at Del Rey.

Fifth grades: Miss Martha Meek's at Glorietta, Mrs. Elizabeth Covington's at Inland Valley Elementary. The fifth grades of Ray Ferro and Terry Pilcher shared the award at Sleepy Hollow.

SIXTH GRADE: Mrs. Florence Smith's at Pine Grove; Warren Arnold's and Miss Joyce Blesi's classes shared a winning pinata at Glorietta School.

After listening to the dialogues and Christmas carols in Spanish, both Mrs. Senram and Mrs. Johnson agreed that selecting the best class was a very difficult thing to do. They were all so "fantasticos!"

MANY HUMOROUS incidents arose during the two-week session. In some classes, the children told of trying to teach their mothers the dialogues.

Others said they dreamed the dialogues in Spanish. (Everyone else in the dream spoke Spanish.) The classroom teachers reported that there are no Orinda boys and girls who do not know what a "pinata" is.

Spanish is taught daily for 15 minutes in all grades beginning in fourth grade. Audio lingual methodology is employed.

The core of each lesson is a short dialogue followed by exercises. Every dialogue has an important structural element built into it.

THE VOCABULARY and sentences are those he is most likely to need. Vocabulary is limited as are long explanations on the functions of grammar. The emphasis at all times is on using the language.

THE CLASSROOM teacher follows up the lesson presented by a visiting teacher. At this time material is left with her so that she can provide this follow-up.

In Orinda all four - six grade classes are provided with tape recorders and a set of tapes taped by Spanish speaking people in order to provide a good model for the learners.

This is the third year of the Orinda program. "Our teachers have been pioneering in this area. Results thus far point up the excellent calibre of our teachers. They are the greatest," states Mrs. Johnson. "The principals, too!"

She recalls that three years ago, a local principal asked at a superintendent's cabinet meeting, referring to Senora Johnson: "Who in the world is this Sarah Johnson?"

ORINDA'S foreign language program has these goals in mind, according to Mrs. Johnson: to establish a well articulated program without gaps, well sequenced through grade levels and well-articulated with the local high schools.

This year, seventh and eighth grades in both I. V. Intermediate and Pine Grove are being taught through audio - lingual methodology. They are learning the foreign language by first hearing, understanding, speaking, reading and then writing.

TAKE-HOME discs are sent home with the students as homework. This entails listening to the records until they can reproduce the sounds.

"Teachers are meeting the challenge with enthusiasm, creativity and valor," Mrs. Johnson says, smilingly: "Come 1965, and the teaching of foreign languages will be old stuff for us."

Man Dies After Crash

William A. Shamp, 62, died Monday night on a deserted stretch of Pleasant Hill Road. He was apparently searching for help, according to the California Highway Patrol.

His damaged auto was found a mile from the body. It was in an open field north of Spring Hill Road.

CHP officers said that the damage indicated the vehicle had overturned and then righted itself.

Shamp, a resident of West Pittsburg, had a heart condition. The body was taken to Oak Park Chapel in Walnut Creek.

The county coroner's autopsy report is not completed as to the exact cause of death. However, it is believed that it was due to a heart failure.

Judge Settles Lee Divorce By Dual Decree

An interlocutory decree was awarded to both Dr. Robert A. Lee, Walnut Creek pediatrician, and his wife Shirley in a continued divorce suit last week.

Superior Judge Homer W. Patterson, who had heard three days of testimony late last September and then took the case under submission, made his decision last Tuesday.

Custody of the Lee children, aged 9 and 8, was awarded Dr. Lee.

Mrs. Lee, formerly a registered nurse, was awarded the family home at 74 La Cuesta, Orinda, household furnishings, $600 monthly alimony and a 1952 automobile.

Young Lebanese Girl 'Adopted' by Family

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Dressel, 695 Glenside Drive, are helping Zeinab Mahmoud Ali Denesh, two-year-old Lebanese girl, and her family to become self-supporting by sponsoring them through Save the Children Federation, international child service organization with headquarters in Norwalk, Connecticut.

Sponsorship funds from the Dressels provide a small working capital for Denesh's shoemaking business.

Denesh estimates that this capital will make it possible for him to double his monthly income.

The federation aims toward permanent improvement in the lives of children through the efforts of their families.

ZEINAB is one of a six-member family. They live in two rooms in the Moslem village of Ghazieh in southern Lebanon.

They are without electricity and have no kitchen or sanitary facilities.

The father has no shop for his shoe-making business which has not provided enough income for the family's basic needs. They have no savings or property.

The realization that people in far-away America care so much about their welfare is most important to the Denesh family.

The Dressels have photographs of them and can correspond with them through the federation's translation service. They will also receive regular progress reports on the Denesh family.

SAVE THE Children Federation, the 30-year-old international non-sectarian welfare organization is registered with the U.S. State Department Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid.

Children are aided by the federation through sponsorships, family, school and community self-help projects and an annual collection of used clothing.

The federation helps American Indian children, children in the Southern Appalachian Mountains and in many countries overseas.

An individual, school or other group need contribute only $12.50 a month to sponsor a child overseas or $10 a month to sponsor an American Indian child.

LEBANESE FAMILY shown here is being sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Dressel, 695 Glenside Drive through "Save the Children Federation."

Students Vie For Scholarships

Students selected by the faculties of Las Lomas, Acalanes, Pleasant Hill and Del Valle High Schools were interviewed Saturday in the first round of an annual engineering scholarship competition.

Jerry Woodhead, 2060 Mallard Drive, Walnut Creek (Pleasant Hill High), Thomas S. Cory, 3936 South Peardale, Lafayette (Acalanes), Kenneth K. Floyd, 2715 Kinney Drive, Walnut Creek (Del Valle) and Kent M. Socters, 40 Francis Way, Walnut Creek (Las Lomas) have been entered in the competition.

The scholarships, about $3000 in all, are supported by the engineering societies and industries of the Bay Area.

SECOND SECTION
ORINDA SUN
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1962

We Agree with That Statement!

We certainly agree with the statement that county employees are well paid. It was made at a recent board of supervisors meeting by Paul Hughey, secretary of the County Taxpayers Association.

A recent study made by the county administrator himself indicates that most county officials are as well paid or better paid than comparable counties, or larger counties, population-wise.

The study took into consideration the employees' salaries and also fringe benefits, which are always a major factor for the employee considering taking a job, and the taxpayers, who must provide cash for both salaries and fringe benefits.

ALTHOUGH THE administrator's study did not compare with county salaries and fringe benefits with those of private industry, we believe that the comparison is not unfavorable.

So, the present board of supervisors has been very generous with taxpayer money.

As one result, the turnover rate of county employees is small, a laudable thing.

However, further efforts towards more salary increases have been made, and these petitions have been taken under advisement by the board.

Not long ago, the supervisors went against their own announced policy and granted salary increases, and it seems the pressure for such increases never relents.

A LARGE FACTOR, we believe, is that during salary hearings, the county employees or their representatives are present in strength, while the representation of the working taxpayer is small, or sometimes nil.

Another study might be made of the subtle changes in supervisorial thinking produced by a large group attending crucial meetings and voicing their wishes, largely without opposition.

Adequate salaries, which are comparable with other like counties are necessary, but this county has exceeded this requirement, and now is the time to hold the line.

This editorial speaks for the working taxpayer who cannot attend the crucial meetings.

Although his voice is small at these meetings, it is large on election days.

You May Not Believe This!

Many parents don't consider venereal diseases as much of a problem, remembering that the use of new drugs during World War II and afterwards were effective then in curing the disease.

As a result, many doctors also have not considered venereal disease as a major problem.

But doctors are now being told by the U. S. Public Health Service that venereal disease has "staged a comeback" since 1955, and the incidence of reported gonorrhea and syphilis cases has risen markedly.

THIS IS NOT only true across the nation, but in Contra Costa County, where the predicted 900 reported cases this year is far ahead of last year's 625.

Many of our young people of school age have been deluded into thinking there is nothing to fear from venereal disease, despite reports of greater resistance of the disease to anti-biotic drugs.

This and the reported "increasing social unrest, general mobility and public apathy" are credited with the new upsurge of the once dreaded affliction, which in the case of syphilis can lead to insanity and death.

Long gone are the days when we didn't talk about such things as venereal disease, and it is up to parents, not the U. S. Public Health Service, doctors or churchmen, to advise our young people of the dangers involved.

VENEREAL DISEASE is not a bogeyman with which to frighten young people—it is a real threat to their future happiness and well being.

Reports are that the county VD incidence are up 30 per cent from last year, and we know that much of this is traceable to population centers such as Richmond and Pittsburg. But the real story also concerns our own central communities and its residents.

National magazines are devoting more space to this revived problem, and we hope that parents will survey the latest detailed information concerning venereal disease and not hesitate to discuss with their maturing youngsters a subject which should be met in a direct manner.

And repetition may be necessary. Kids tend to forget.

Especially things which they would rather not believe.

Congratulations To Judge Rahn

Congratulations to Judge Betsy FitzGerald Rahn of the Walnut Creek Municipal Court for earning a rare distinction.

Judge Rahn's court was named as one of only two such courts in the state to receive an American Bar Association plaque ". . . for outstanding progress in the improvement of traffic court practices and procedures during 1961-62."

The timing of the award was apt, also, since as Judge Rahn noted, a time of greatest motorist danger is here with the arrival of the Christmas season and its accompanying distraction of the driver on holiday events, and the greatly increased incidence of drunken driving.

Judge Rahn had this in mind when she received the plaque, and warned some 40 persons listening, many of them traffic violators, that their survival this Christmas season "depends on you."

We agree with her, and only wish that more persons could have witnessed the ceremony. Such an experience might have saved a few of the lives which will be taken this holiday.

'Humbug' Yourself Mr. Scrooge

By JANE PUTNAM

"Bah, humbug!" I thought.

Christmas has lost its meaning. It has become commercial. It's nothing but a headache. More bills. More mess. Working full time this year, I simply didn't have time for Christmas. It would be a relief to be done with it.

I heard the carols and saw the decorations and felt December in the air — but the "Bah, humbug" spirit prevailed.

Systematically, we processed the news of our county. It wasn't much different than usual—except that the stores were open longer — and there were more pageants, more lights, more tinsel.

The changing trend in the news was subtle. So subtle that it's hard to say when it began.

Maybe it was when we ran a story about the County Juvenile Hall. The dedicated director sent out an S.O.S. for cakes. In the overcrowded hall, each child's birthday is celebrated with cake for all—and the director was down to her last cake.

Brownies and Bluebirds from all over the county began to bake. Happily, they carried their baked goods to the hall to refurbish the freezer.

A DeMolay chapter brought a seven-foot silver tip tree to the cottage at the hall, where 48 temporarily homeless younger children are housed. The cottage was built to accommodate 21. To go under the tree was an array of toys and games, beautifully wrapped by teen-age boys.

Another story told of two troops of fifth and sixth grade Girl Scouts who (through the Volunteer Bureau) presented a puppet show and Christmas party for the children's ward at the county hospital. The girls created their own puppets and wrote their play based upon the Dr. Seuss story, "The Grinch Who Stole Christmas."

They provided refreshments and sang carols in the colorless ward. It was difficult to tell whether the patients or entertainers enjoyed the party most.

The county Christmas bureau had mountains of canned goods and many new toys donated, mostly through the county's schools. The bureau helps families in our area who are having a "rough go" over the holidays.

One volunteer worker told of a man who was helped by the bureau last year; and returned this year—as a donor.

Churches reported an intensified lay visitation program. Volunteers went to rest homes and visited the aged in their own homes. They brought gifts to oldsters who thought they were forgotten.

There were a lot more anti-"Bah humbug!" stories — too numerous to squeeze in this small corner.

At home, our kindergartner, sometimes known as Mr. Greedy Gout, brought us a magical gift: his hand prints in white poster paint on blue construction paper.

"How Does Your Town Keep Christmas?" The Sun's supplement, "Suburbia Today," asked in its December issue.

Our county keeps Christmas the only real way it can be kept—every day—with love.

Under The Sun Polynesian Paradise-- It's a Way of Life

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

PAPEETE, TAHITI—Two weeks ago Eleanor and I arrived in this French Polynesian Paradise.

Some tourists are most disappointed. We love it.

Ten minutes after the South Pacific Air Lines plane landed (2000 miles from Hawaii) I was completely relaxed. We have not heard the radio, a telephone, TV or seen a newspaper. We sit by the hour near the water or at Vaima restaurant, hardly able to move.

When we overcame our Polynesian paralysis, we sauntered across the street to the lagoon to see the yachts or climb aboard a French or English steamship.

Time for a fitting

Now it's time for a fitting! Eleanor has ordered a French lace dress from Augustine Chin, the adorable Chinese couteriere, who is a genius. Eleanor picks a dress from the French fashion books and Augustine does the rest—a $150 dress for $15.

We jump into our Renault Dauphine from Avis and drive eight kilometers to the Bel Air, our wonderful hotel. Our bamboo and pandemus bungalow is about 25 feet from the lagoon's edge. To the right are the tropics — beautiful flowers, cocopalms, coffee shrubs, banana and papaya trees.

In the distance are Tahitian fishermen and the hulk of a ship breaking up on the coral.

Three bungalows back is the most delightful, cool, swimming pool, fed with 4500 gallons of natural spring water each minute.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Villeirme are delightful hosts, who own this well-run hotel. They used to own property in Orinda and their sons went to Acalanes High. Last night we walked along the shore, climbing over the cocopalm branches and coconuts and tropical shrubs.

Papeete has changed some since South Pacific Air Lines flew us in last year. But not much—thank goodness.

Lots more hotel rooms have been built—more than needed. There are tourists but not in large numbers. The islands are still unspoiled, delightful, a perfect place for fun and rest. Not for visitors who want only to see sights and keep busy every minute.

Some tourists dislike it. They expect too much. Papeete has been called "Cannery Row with Cocopalms." In a way this is true—tin roofs, ramshackled buildings, thousands of bikes.

Papeete, Tahiti, Bora Bora and all of French Polynesia are not just for sightseeing. It's not for organized touring.

It's a way of life

It's a way of life—slow, relaxed, a meeting of happy Tahitian people.

But our memories will long continue—of beautiful vahines and tanes, surf pounding on the reef, visits to 10 islands, swimming with the shark in the lagoon, eating breadfruit and delicious raw fish, and getting to know the sweetest, kindest, happiest people on earth.

Would we trade our life for it? No! But we'd love to return to our quiet cocopalm island in the fabulous South Pacific.

More Than a Child Involved at Christmas; His Mission Described

By THE REV. GEORGE L. MOORE
First Baptist Church of Walnut Creek

"Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a Son and they shall call His name Emanuel, which being interpreted is God with us," Matt. 1:22, 23.

This Christmas season the world at large is worshipping luxuriously a baby Jesus.

However, if one was to pull away all the tinsel and trappings, beautiful as they may be, and get to the reality of the "swaddling clothes" of the Savior, they would immediately realize there is more to the Christmas story than a Christ Child.

This same Jesus grew to full manhood evidencing continuously the fact that "He came to seek and to save that which was lost."

It was this same Jesus that told one of his inquirers that "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish but have everlasting life," John 3:16.

According to the scriptures, the Savior now lives with his Father God as our intercessor.

He is aware of our devoted remembrance of his birthday by giving and receiving of gifts. Jesus Emanuel and all heaven would rejoice if we would receive him as God's gift of eternal life.

Then he would be in all reality "Emanuel, God with us."

It would be then that we would know him as "Wonderful, Counsellor, the mighty God, the everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace." Isaiah 9:6.

Miracle of Christmas... Its Effect on Mankind Is All-Powerful

By THE REV. GEORGE E. BERRY
Lafayette Methodist Church

Who of us can deny that the forces released in our world by the idea of Christmas are more powerful than any force known to man?

No other festival of religion or of church or state can do for the hardened hearts of men what the Christmas season can do.

Let us note the power of the Light that comes to the darkest days of our year with the Christmas lights. The Christ Spirit was ushered into the world by a star to light the way of men walking in darkness. And who would even attempt to number the candles and bright lights that pierce December darkness to proclaim that Christmas comes again to a world in need of light.

NOTE ALSO the power of the songs that come to life each Christmas time, songs that never grow old, even though they may be as old as the idea of Christmas itself.

Men who never attempt to sing at any other time break forth at Christmas time with carols learned in childhood, and lustily they sing "Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright."

Note again, the power of the gifts that are exchanged at Christmas time.

The gifts of the Wisemen of old become meager indeed beside the countless gifts given loved ones and friends each Christmas season.

But even more significant and meaningful than the gifts themselves in the desire and the "feeling within" that makes us want to give gifts at Christmas time.

AND STILL more important than the power of the Light, the songs and the gifts associated with Christmas is the continuing dream of peace on earth among men of goodwill that will not die in the hearts of men everywhere, which becomes the theme of each Christmas season.

The angelic host of old first sang of "Glory to God" and of "Peace Among Men" and, regardless of what we may sing about for the rest of the year, we join at this season in the glad refrain of "Glory to God in the Highest" and "O Come, Let Us Adore Him, Christ the Lord, Halleluiah."

St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Walnut Creek was the site recently of a double ring ceremony joining in marriage Virginia Louise Mauss of Walnut Creek and Fred Bugbee Vogel of San Francisco. Rev. David H. Romeis officiated.

Virginia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. P. Mauss, 1340 Springbrook Road, Walnut Creek. She attended California State Polytechnic College, as did her husband.

Fred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Alexander Vogel Jr. of San Francisco.

Virginia's maid of honor was Charlotte Z. Mauss. Her bridesmaids were Nancy E. Mauss and Mary Brunhofer.

Best man was Fred Bohman. William Courter and Robert Pollitt were ushers.

Virginia's gown was of white satin with modified sweetheart neckline, cummerbund and bell skirt. It was caught in back with white satin roses. The long sleeves were pointed over her hands.

The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

The attendants wore sapphire blue satin gowns with slightly flared skirts. Bows with streamers were at the back neckline, with bows above waistline in front. Their headpieces were bows with veils.

They carried cascades of pink carnations.

The reception was at the home of the bride's parents.

Wawona Foresees Big Year Ahead

An installation luncheon and a yuletide party made an already busy month even busier for members of the Wawona Guild of the Women's Auxiliary to John Muir Memorial Hospital.

The recent luncheon at Mike Lynn's, Orinda, marked the beginning of what promises to be an eventful and exciting year for the new officers of the guild.

Officers installed were: Mrs. John Kilbuck, president; Mrs. Keith Fitch, vice-president; Mrs. Paul Bailey, recording secretary; Mrs. Holt Parsons, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Jones, treasurer; and Mrs. Charles Winslow, council representative.

Outgoing president, Mrs. Herb A. Rowley, was presented with an engraved gavel honoring her year as president. The presentation was made by Mrs. Harry Aho, charter president of Wawona Guild.

Mrs. Aho commended Mrs. Rowley for a successful year due to her fine leadership. It was a busy year and one to be remembered by the 12 guilds that form the Women's Auxiliary to John Muir Memorial Hospital.

Highlight was the final door-to-door canvass that secured enough money to enable the John Muir Hospital to qualify for Hill-Burton funds to complete financing of the non-profit hospital.

Community spirit was enhanced by the enthusiasm and hard work of the guilds.

"Wawona Guild has played an active part in making the hospital a reality," commented Mrs. Aho.

Construction of the new hospital will begin in March on Ygnacio Valley Road in Walnut Creek.

In addition to the officers attending the luncheon, members present included the Mmes. Charles Henning, Robert Hagler, Vince Casella, Edward Lund, Wallace Kanes, Robert MacKay, Robert Percell, Jay Robey, Don Rogers, J. A. Roessler, Errol Carpenter, Earl Ahrens, Donald Boltz, Kennth Dalgleish, Russell Taylor, Ronald Gustafson, Raymond Henson, W. H. Shipley, Harry Cameron, Albert Steele, Ferrill Stwart and Stephen Hunter.

Much of the luncheon conversation was centered around the wonderful time had by all at the Wawona Guild Christmas cocktail party held at the Walnut Creek Inn.

Merrymakers at the party included Messrs. and Mmes. Harry Aho, Paul Bailey, Keith Fitch, Ronald Gustafson, Robert Hagler, Raymond Henson, Charles Henning, Frank Jones, Wallace Kanes, Robert MacKay, Robert Percell, Jay Robey, Don Rogers, J. A. Roessler, Herb Rowley, William Shipley, Charles Winslow, Donald Boltz, Hollis McLaughlin, Ferrill Stewart, Leonard Metcalf and Stephen Hunter.

Following the cocktail fete, the group adjourned to the Concord Inn for dinner and dancing.

Harry X. Fords Greet Holiday Guests At Home

One of the most festive of holiday parties was the annual open house given Saturday (4 to 9 p.m.) by California College of Arts and Crafts President Mrs. Harry X. Ford.

Attending were faculty, staff and members of the Board of CCAC; and leaders in Bay Area art and cultural circles, many of them closely interested in the art college and its program.

These included friends from Diablo Valley communities, from Marin and the Peninsula, from San Francisco and Oakland areas. Members of the Walnut Creek Art Commission, and Mayor and Mrs. Robert Nelson with members of the Walnut Creek Board of Supervisors, also attended.

Guiding the guests to the gaily decorated house at 2637 San Benito Drive, Walnut Creek, were jewel-colored "farollitas," (small enclosed candle-lights) which made glowing squares along both sides of the walk. This is a lovely custom in Mrs. Ford's home city of Santa Fe, New Mexico, as in old Mexico where, according to tradition, the little lights lead "la Posada" the Holy Family procession, to Christmas shelter.

Mrs. Ford greeted guests in a hostess gown of her own creation. It was a beautiful knit of eggshell white raw silk yarn. She wore gold accessories. Celeste Ford, besides being the wife of a busy college president, is a high fashion designer.

A huge bowl of emerald Venetian glass held orange champagne punch. Adorning the deliciously laden smorgasbord table were silver candelabra. On the tree were quaint decorations brought back by the Fords fro mtheir several years' sojourn to Europe. These included toy "meringues" from Vienna, colorful Advent wreaths and Advent cards and other holiday inspired ornaments to the Christmas season.

Assisting Mrs. Ford in greeting guests were Walnut Creek residents Mrs. Gerald Hill (husband with Peck and Hill, furniture); Mrs. Harold Butznach (Mr. Butznach is a San Francisco industrial architect); Mrs. Charles Chase, who si with the Walnut Creek Recreation Department.

As usual, the hosts' son, young J. Damian Ford, headed a crew of car parking specialists so that the guests had no problems on that score, before walking between the "farollitas" toward wassail and good Christmas cheer on this annual get-together.

Sisters Set Precedent At Rebekah

Carol Elaine Macy Is Bride of Dale C. Ansley

Carol Elaine Macy became the bride of Dale Carson Ansley recently at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Andrew M. Robinson officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Macy, 1313 Reliez Valley Road, Lafayette.

She graduated from Acalanes High School and attended Diablo Valley College. Carol was employed by Stanford White, Lafayette accountant.

Dale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Ansley of Pittsburg. He attended Pacifica High School and is employed by the State Division of Highways.

As she walked down the aisle on the arm of her father, the bride wore a traditional Cayhill gown of silk brocade. It had a bell skirt and sweeping brush train.

Small bows trimmed the bodice in front. The gown had a sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length flared sleeves.

Carol's shoulder-length veil of English illusion was held by a crown of tiny pearls with drops. She carried a satin and lace Bible bedecked with white cattelyn orchids and stephanotis.

The bride's attendants were Martha Walters, Lafayette; Christine Macy, Lafayette, the bride's sister. Karen Hohe was flower girl.

Best man was Bill Adcock. Jack Savage and Vern Fletcher were ushers.

Organist was Robert Coslett.

The church was decorated with fan shaped arrangements of white gladioli and spider chrysanthemum.

At the reception in the church parlor, there was a profusion of gold and white flowers. A pair of five branch candelabra adorned the bride's table.

Orinda man claims bride in Reedly

Dr. John William Conley Claims Bride in Reedley

Dr. John William Conley recently claimed Marily Ruth McElhoe as his bride in a beautiful service at the Christ Lutheran Church, Reedley.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert B. McElhoe of Reedley. Her father gave her in marriage. Pastor Myron Hetland performed the rites.

Young Dr. Conley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Conley, 28 El Verano Road, Orinda.

White China chrysanthemum and ti leaves were in baskets at the sides of the chancel area of the church. White mums were at the altar.

The bride wore a traditional gown of ivory pure silk peau de soie. It had a portrait neckline with three-quarter length sleeves and fitted bodice. A soft bell-shaped skirt cascaded into a full chapel train.

Virginia wore a Brussels lace mantilla and carried a spray of phalaenopsis, orchids and buddleia.

Miss Tamara Taylor was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bruce A. McElhoe, Seattle, and Mrs. Joseph F. Conley Jr., both sisters-in-law of the bride.

Best man was Nathaniel S. Dodge III, formerly of Orinda, now of Berkeley.

Soloist was Roy Reimer. Acolyte was Master James Bening Conley, little brother of the groom.

A reception was held at the Reedley Study and Civic Club. Decor included an abundance of bronze and yellow China mums and yellow Fuji mums. The bride cut a five-tiered cake adorned with yellow-tipped roses.

Dr. Conley is a graduate of Acalanes High School, University of California Medical Center, D.D.S., class '61. He is now a resident in oral surgery at U.C. Medical Center, San Francisco. He was affiliated with Alpha Delta Phi fraternity at Berkeley and Xi Psi Phi at S.F.

The new Mrs. Conley graduated from Reedley High School and the University of California, Berkeley, where she was affiliated with Chi Omega sorority. She completed her dietetic internship in September at U.S. Medical Center, San Francisco.

The justweds honeymooned at Carmel and Boulder Creek. They are now making their home at 1417 27th Avenue, San Francisco.

Council Is Installed

The Guardian Council of Job's Daughters Bethel 218 was installed recently by Mrs. Edith Parker, deputy grand guardian-State of California-I.O.J.D.

The following were installed: Mrs. Barbara Benofsky, "Skid" Thomas, Charles Sedam, Mrs. Dorothy Lundquist, Mrs. Nellie Prentice, Mrs. Jennie Bell Harman, Mrs. Edna Vallelunga, William Hawkins, Mrs. Kay Kooreman, Mrs. Letha Low, Mrs. Lucille Madsen, Mrs. Marie Meyers and George Low.

Thirteen members of Bethel No. 218 are eligible to receive their Majority Degree. The Majority Degree ceremony will be December 26, 7:30 p.m. at the Lafayette Veterans Building.

Diablo Nile No. 8 Has Xmas Party

The Diablo Nile Club No. 8 held its regular meeting and annual Christmas party yesterday at the home of Mrs. D. W. Nicholson, 266 Las Casa Via, Walnut Creek.

Co-hostesses in charge of the yuletide festivities are Mrs. J. Kirby, president of Antioch; Mrs. S. Munro of Orinda; Mrs. E. B. Decker of Concord and Mrs. F. Fletcher of Pittsburg.

Two Local Buds To Bow

Two lovely local debutantes will be among the 23 girls to make their bow at the Winter Ball tonight at the Claremont Hotel, Berkeley. Lynn LaBoyteaux and Holly Borden, both of Orinda, will make their official curtsy to society at 10:30 p.m.

The 1962 ball is being sponsored by the Hill branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay. Proceeds will benefit the hospital.

Lynn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth La Boyteaux, 1 La Chesnaye, Orinda. She graduated from the Anna Head School in June of this year. Lynn is a freshman at the University of California, Davis.

Her older sister, Leslie La Boyteaux, will return from Paris in time for the holiday festivities.

Holly also graduated from Head's in June. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. William Borden, 3 Pueblo Court, Orinda. Holly has received many honors as a freshman at the University of Idaho.

Her older sister made her debut with last year's debs.

Lynn's escort will be Robert L. Neuhaus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neuhaus of Orinda.

Holly's escort will be James H. Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Sutton III of Piedmont.

The girls have been going to a round of parties since summer.

Yesterday's schedule included a brunch and dinner, plus the Winter Ball rehearsal at 4 p.m.

The day after the ball, the debs will gather for a noon brunch at the Carl Mauser home in Piedmont to compare notes with fellow deb Lynn Mauser.

Unprecedented in the annals of holiday deb parties in the East Bay is the scheduling of a reception for Christmas Day proper. This is planned by the Richard Railtons for daughter Jane, and will be from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

December 26 will be Mrs. Nelson Morse's luncheon for Harriet Akesson and the reception by Mr. and Mrs. William Robbins for Charlotte Ashby and Robin Law, a San Francisco Cotillion deb.

Mrs. Frederick Novy Jr. will honor Mary Twiss and Patricia Lamb at a coffee party Thursday morning. That afternoon, the Philip Clays will give a tea dance for Betsey Wilde at the Francisca Club.

A luncheon by Mesdames Otis Winfield, Peter Hass and Wallace Johnson for Susan Hofmann is planned for December 28. The day will be topped by a dinner dance Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Browne will give for daughter Victoria.

The December 20 parties mentioned previously are the brunch by Mesdames James Howard and William Shaw for Martha Minor, Carol Crist, Betsey Wilde and Elinor Moore at Trader Vic's and the dinner for Judy Rowe by the William S. Townes, Douglas Alberts and Thomas Hogans at the Towne residence.

'Toy Parties' Given by Local Chapter

One of the favorite works of the members of Alpha Lambda Chapter of Omega Nu is the helping of the different children's groups during the Christmas season. This year, a series of toy parties was given under the direction of Mrs. Fred LeClair.

Proceeds from these parties will be used to buy toys for two very deserving groups of children. Part of the proceeds will be used for the children at the Sonoma State Hospital for the Mentally Retarded and the other part will be used for children at the Juvenile Hall in Martinez.

Socially, this month the members had two events. Wednesday, a Christmas party was held at the Contra Costa Real Estate Board for the children of the members. There was Santa Claus, a tree and all the trimmings.

The Ski Line . . .

Skiing Reports Are Bad All Over the Country

By HEC HANCOCK

If there's anything to the bit about misery loving company, perhaps I can be of some help.

Sure, we're again experiencing the harrowing ordeal of waiting for a suitable Sierra snowpack to materialize. The area has been plagued thus far by relatively warm temperatures, causing what precipitation we've received to manifest itself in the form of common, old-fashioned rain.

Now the rain appears to be turning to snow at the higher elevations, thus providing some hope for the multitude of grounded skiers.

Squaw Valley has announced that it will be in operation over the weekend. Heavenly Valley has followed suit, and plans to press lift No. 3 into service.

By far the most optimistic report emanates from Mt. Shasta, where nearly four feet of pack awaits the skier's pleasure. Actually, while still somewhat precarious, the Northern California ski picture is probably the best in the area west of the Continental Divide.

For an example, consider the plight of the United States Ski Association. After rounding up nearly 50 of the cream of America's skiers for an Alpine training camp to be conducted at Vail, Colorado, December 22-January 4, the entire project appears doomed due to a lack of snow.

Right now, the illustrious group of ski stars, gathered together at a cost of $10,000 to the U.S.S.A. could accomplish just as much on the slopes of Mt. Diablo as they can back in the heart of the Rockies.

Ironically, Squaw Valley, mindful of the U.S.S.A.'s plight has offered its facilities to the group.

Still think things are bad here? How about Alta, Utah. Normally, this famed ski spa feels cheated if it hasn't at least six feet of powder snow by the first of October. As of mid-week, Alta reported a scant pack of two inches of snow.

Still crying the blues? Aspen, Colorado, the mecca of the western ski world sends word that skiing is confined to rock hopping.

And so it goes. While the weather man hasn't filled the skier's stocking of overflowing, the local outlook is beginning to appear better than those farway ski spots with exotic sounding names.

It should be of some solace to realize that at least we stay-at-homes won't have to bear with our more fortunate friends regaling us with stories of the fabulous ski conditions they experienced during their holiday travels.

Meanwhile, there's at least one local group that isn't letting conditions dampen its plans for the future.

The Acalanes Ski Club is busily preparing for another of its typically active seasons. This bunch has become one of the most energetic in the prep ranks.

While most high school ski clubs confine their efforts to a single ski bash per season, the Acalanes group have set up an ambitious schedule calling for at least four sojourns to the high country. Under the direction of prexy Dave Perry, the skiing Dons will travel to Yosemite, January 19. Following this, they have lined up at least three trips to Donner Summit.

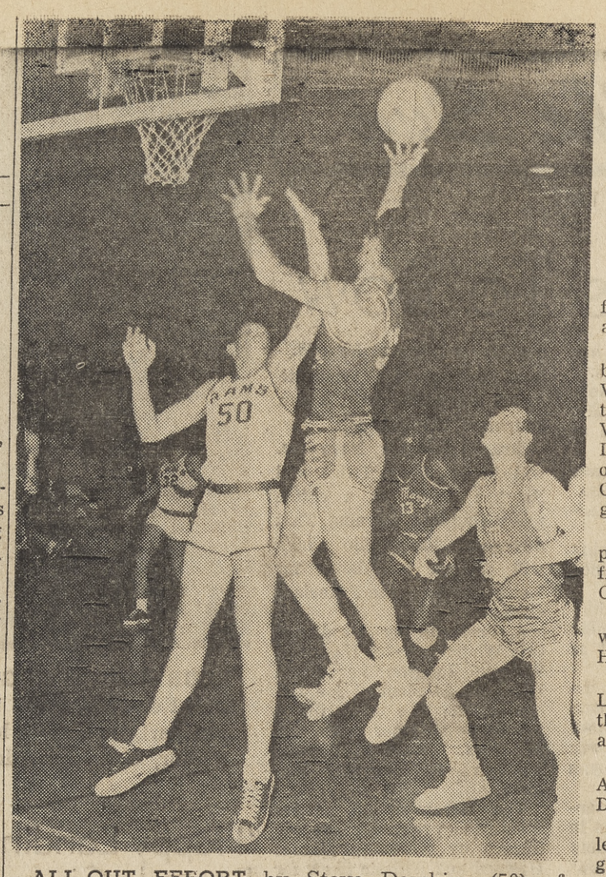
Prominent in the Acalanes ski scene are such demon skiers as Andy Picard, Bart Rocca, and Duncan Dixon. Capably representing the distaff side is Karen Daniels.

Be sure to check the latest reports on ski conditions on radio KWUN, 7:45 a.m. Thursday and Friday and at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning. You can keep up to date on these telephoned reports from the resort operators in the Sierra.

So be of good cheer, and strong faith, and to one and all, Merry Christmas.

HORSE SALT

It's best to let horses have regular access to salt rather than to let them gorge themselves at infrequent and hurried moments.



ALL-OUT EFFORT by Steve Dawkins (50) of Pleasant Hill stopped this attempt for a two-pointer by Ron Trujillo of St. Mary's last Friday night in the Mid-Valley Classic. The Rams defeated the Berkeley quintet to gain the finals, then defeated Mt. Diablo for the title.

Mats, Rams Win Titles; Other Teams Do Well

Local prep basketball teams fared quite well in tournament action over the weekend.

Pleasant Hill and Miramonte both won tournament titles; Del Valle and Acalanes both won two straight games in Del Valle's "no champion" tourney; Las Lomas won consolation honors in the Amador tourney, and College Park won two of three games in the Mid-Valley Classic.

Pleasant Hill won the championship in the Mt. Diablo Unified School District Mid-Valley Classic.

MIRAMONTE won the Redwood Empire Invitational at Healdsburg.

After losing the first game, Las Lomas won its last two in the Amador Valley Invitational at Pleasanton.

Cupertino and Skyline fell to Acalanes and Del Valle in the Del Valle round-robin tourney.

After losing its opener, College Park won its last two games.

DEL VALLE

Acalanes romped past Skyline 57-45, and Del Valle bounced Cupertino, 46-32, on Friday night.

Switching opponents, Acalanes routed Cupertino, 52-37, and Del Valle edged Skyline, 41-38, Saturday night.

Named to the all-star team were Bill O'Toole, Del Valle; Bill Higgins, Acalanes, and Bob Strain, Acalanes.

Against Skyline, the Dons had three players in double figures. Bart Rocca led the parade with 16 points as he connected on eight free throws. Center Bill Higgins added 13 and guard Doug Sanderson 10.

Acalanes led 25-13 at the half.

Sanderson came back with 17 points on eight field goals the following night to top both teams. Higgins chipped in with 10 more.

AFTER TRAILING, 8-6, at the quarter, the Dons erupted with 17 points in the second period to lead 23-17 at the half. It was 42-29 going into the last quarter.

Higgins dominated the backboards in both games, grabbing off 16, then 21.

Del Valle spurted away from Cupertino in the second half to win easily. O'Toole paced the Trojans with 13 points.

Against Skyline, O'Toole again led the way with 19 points.

The Trojans led most of the way, but had to hold off the visitors in the last minutes for the win.

REDWOOD EMPIRE

Miramonte scored 20 points in the third quarter to overcome a Poly first half advantage, then breezed home to the tournament title, 55-45.

The Mats led, 12-11, at the quarter, but a pair of last-minute baskets gave the San Franciscans a 26-20 lead at halftime.

Center Eric Enruh collected six of his 11 points in the big third quarter as the Mats pulled to a 40-36 lead.

Unruh and Bruce Nickerson tied for game scoring honors with 11 points each. Guard Bob Williams, a tournament standout, had 10 points. Steve Thaman had 9, Bruce Cummings 8 and Rod Robinson 6.

Coach Herb Graw pointed to Williams' aggressive floor play and team leadership as a big reason why Miramonte won the title.

WILLIAMS got eight of his 10 points in the second-half push against Poly.

In the opening game, the Mats outscored host Healdsburg, 18-8 in the final quarter to pull out a 49-46 win.

Steve Thaman scored eight of his 12 points in the last period.

The Mats trailed 38-31 going into the final eight minutes.

Williams and Rod Robinson each collected four points in the wild finish. Williams finished with 10 points.

Saturday night, the Matadors never trailed against Ukiah after they grabbed a 13-12 first-quarter lead. They increased the margin to 26-21 at the half, then held on in a defensive, cold-shooting second half for both teams.

Ukiah could only score nine points in the final 16 minutes.

Unruh paced the scorers with 12 points. Williams had 7.

MID-VALLEY CLASSIC

Pleasant Hill defeated Mt. Diablo, 43-37, Saturday night to win the first Mid-Valley Classic that has ever produced a "winner."

In the past, the tourney has been a round-robin affair.

The new look for the tourney this year included all Mt. Diablo Unified School District high schools, plus two "guest teams."

The Rams defeated new Ygnacio Valley, 36-32, in its opening game last Thursday. Friday night Pleasant Hill came back with a 47-43 win over highly-regarded St. Mary's of Berkeley to gain the final round.

Mark Kimball paced the opening win with 10 points. Ray Perry, with 10 points, and Pete Hall, with 9, paced the win over St. Mary's.

THE RAMS and the Devils battled all the way, with the lead changing hands several times prior to the final buzzer.

Pleasant Hill led, 10-6, at the end of the first quarter and retained a 19-17 lead at the half despite Mt. Diablo gaining the upper hand late in the stanza.

The Devils went out in front again in the third quarter, but the Rams rallied to carry a 32-31 lead going into the final quarter.

Pleasant Hill received balanced scoring from John Hunt, Kimball and Mike Hayes. Hunt collected 11, while Kimball and Hayes had 10 each.

Kimball gained a position on the tournament all-star team picked by the coaches of participating teams. Roger Mower of College Park was also named to the squad.

AFTER LEADING, 19-14, at the half against St. Mary's, the Falcons faltered and lost, 42-35, in an opening-round game last Thursday.

College Park recovered for a fifth-place finish with two straight wins.

With Mower leading the way with 16 points, the Falcons crushed Ygnacio Valley, 48-31, Friday night. Against Alhambra on Saturday night, College Park outscored the Bulldogs, 23-9, in the final quarter for a 55-46 win.

The Falcons were paced by Mower, who scored 19 points, and Sam Martinelli, who collected 19.

St. Mary's took third place in the tourney standing with a 38-37 win over Clayton Valley.

AMADOR VALLEY

After bowing to John Swett, 43-35, in the opening round of the Amador Valley Invitational Tournament, Las Lomas came back with a pair of impressive wins for consolation honors. Swett gained the finals, but lost the title to Albany.

The Knights now have a 3-5 record on the season. The win over Livermore, 74-61, in the second game of the tourney broke a five-game losing streak.

Saturday night, the Knights routed Liberty, 59-42.

Steve Miles collected 21 points in the win over Livermore. He received plenty of scoring support from Bob Kreider and Darryl Razzano, who notched 17 and 15 points respectively.

Kreider posted 16 points in the final win over Liberty, while Miles had 12.

The Knights jumped to a 14-5 lead at the end of the first quarter and never trailed. The score was 31-18 at the half. The Knights were never outscored in any quarter.

Livermore committed 37 personal fouls against Las Lomas and had all five starters foul out. The Knights had 26 personals called against them.

LL Wrestlers Score Win Over Novato, 36-9

Las Lomas picked up its third non-league wrestling win in five starts last week with an easy 36-9 triumph over Novato.

DV Wins Again— No. 1 for Wolves

Del Valle ran its non-league record to 6-1 and San Ramon won its first game of the season as the local prep teams closed out the schedule for 1962 Tuesday.

A big second half carried Del Valle to a 64-51 win over Castro Valley.

San Ramon also came from behind in the second half to defeat Tracy, 51-43.

In another game Tuesday, Las Lomas was subdued in a second half by undefeated Hayward, 61-14.

Del Valle 64, Castro Valley 51

The Trojans could score only five points in the second quarter and trailed at the intermission, 27-21.

A free-scoring first quarter saw Del Valle lead by one, 16-15.

The Trojans scored 43 points in the second half, 25 in the final quarter.

Outscoring the home-standing Castro Valley quintet, 18-11, in the third quarter, Del Valle went ahead late in the period, 39-38.

Center Dave Paul, a first-year man at Del Valle, scored 23 points to lead all scorers.

Del Valle also got a big scoring effort from Bill O'Toole, who notched 21. Paul, a transfer student and a senior, connected on nine field goals and five of five free throw attempts.

O'Toole hit on nine of 12 charity tosses. Bob Kovats had 11 for Del Valle.

San Ramon 51, Tracy 43

Paced by Chris Reed's 14 second-half points, San Ramon overcame a 25-20 halftime deficit to defeat Tracy.

San Ramon outscored the visitors, 15-8, in the third quarter to take a 35-33 lead going into the final eight minutes.

Tracy led, 13-11, at the end of the first quarter.

It was the first win for San Ramon after five straight losses.

Reed finished with 19 points for the game. He had six field goals and seven free throws. The Wolves got scoring help from Chuck Fereira, who notched seven field goals and collected 15 points.

A pressing defense helped set up many San Ramon baskets in the second half.

Hayward 61, Las Lomas 41

After breaking a five-game losing streak with two wins in the Amador Valley tourney, Las Lomas' string was broken by unbeaten Hayward's many guns Tuesday in Walnut Creek. Hayward is now 10-0.

The Knights held their own in the opening eight minutes and had a 11-10 lead going into the second quarter.

The visitors outscored Las Lomas, 20-13, in the second quarter for a 30-24 lead at the half.

Still in the game, the Knights couldn't find the range in the third period, scoring just five points, and fell far behind, 41-29.

Center Darryl Razzano paced the Knights with six field goals.

Bob Kreider was the only other Las Lomas player in double figures. He got 10 points. Steve Miles finished with 9.

DVC Keeps Winning-- Now 7-1

Diablo Valley College cagers are enjoying a holiday after racking up seven wins in eight starts — the last two over the weekend.

The Vikings outlasted Cabrillo College, 57-49, at Santa Cruz on Friday and then eased past Menlo College, 48-41, Saturday night on campus.

All-League guard Sam Coston and Rex Bankhead each had 14 points against Cabrillo. Bankhead was tops in the rebounding department for the game with 10.

DVC led, 30-23, at the half.

TOM STRAIN and Rick Scott each had eight points for the winners.

Saturday night, it was Coston and Bankhead again leading the way. Coston had 14 points to pace both teams in scoring. Bankhead had 10.

Scott again helped out with eight points.

Bob Nichols, a Las Lomas standout for two years, had 10 points for Menlo and picked off five rebounds.

Coston led both teams with 11.

The Vikings' next game is at Vallejo J. C. next Friday.

Yang Yangs Roll Up 110 Points In PH Cage Loop

In the Pleasant Hill Recreation District's Adult Basketball A League last week, the Yang Yangs crushed Nolte Engineers, 110-44; and the Untouchables routed the All-Stars, 75-52.

In the B league, Heim Brothers romped past Misfits, 51-37, and the Orphans thumped San Ramon Motors, 57-35.

John Paul Jones paced the Yang Yangs with 18 points as everyone got in the scoring act.

Dave Stegman and Mike Sutkowski each had 16 points and Don Lindeneau had 14. Frank Nelson paced Nolte with 16. The Yang Yangs led 48-11 at the half. The winners rolled up 34 points in the last quarter.

L. C. Joyner collected 24 points to pace the Untouchables. Larry Reagan chipped in with 22. Bob LaPointe had 9 points for the losers. Frank Balarino finished with 17 for the All-Stars.

Gaels Split Two Games In Midwest

St. Mary's College concludes its four-game eastern trip tomorrow night against Utah at Salt Lake City.

Last night, the Gaels faced Creighton at Omaha.

The Moraga quintet evened its season's record at 3-3 Monday night with a 76-75 win over St. Norbert's College at Green Bay.

St. Mary's was drubbed by Marquette University in Milwaukee, Saturday, 82-70, in the first game of the eastern trip.

The Gaels return home Monday to prepare for the annual West Coast Athletic Confernece holiday tournament at the University of San Francisco gym.

The tourney gets underway Wednesday and concludes next Saturday night.

THE WARRIORS of Marquette raced to an overwhelming 42-26 halftime lead over the Gaels and built it to 59-36 a few minutes into the second half.

Five straight field goals then brought the Gaels back into contention.

With less than three minutes to play, the Gaels trailed, 76-68, but they couldn't get any closer.

St. Mary's All-America candidate Steve Gray topped all scorers with 27 points on nine field goals and an equal number of charity tosses.

Against St. Norbert's, the Gaels had a 76-71 lead with three minutes to play.

The Green Knights made it 76-75 in the last two minutes, but the home team then missed two free throws and a layup to give St. Mary's the win.

ST. NORBERT'S led at halftime, 42-37.

Gray again took scoring honors —this time with 19 points. He again connected for nine field goals.

Five St. Mary's players were in double figures with Joe Lee getting 12.

Jim Moore, Tom Sheridan and Mike Carosielli all had 10.

Prior to leaving on the trip, the Gaels routed San Fernando Valley State College, 95-62, in the only game to be played this season in Moraga.

Gray scored 35 points while Sheridan racked up 18 more.

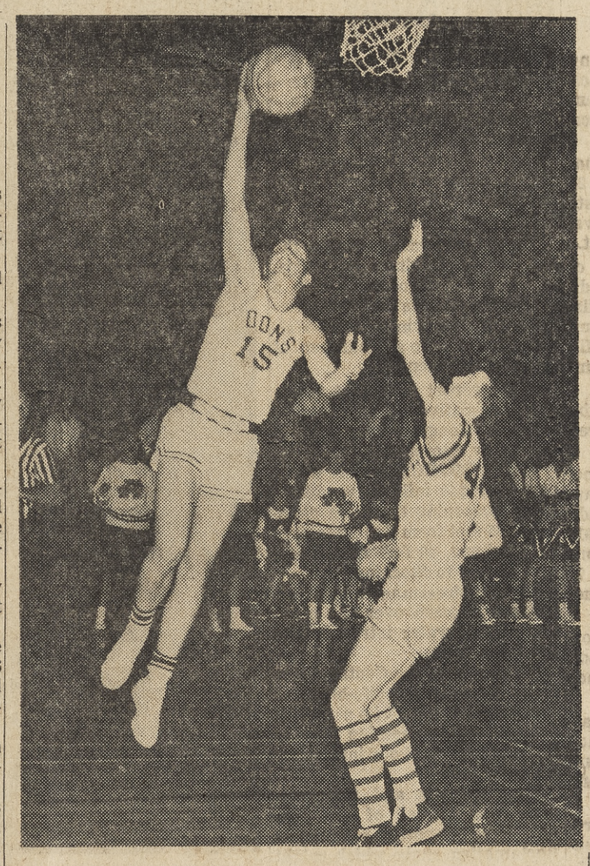
St. Mary's other win this year was scored over Sacramento State College in the opening game of the season.

Pin Pals League

Tom Martin's Chevron moved into a tie for first place with Diablo Sports Center in tre Pin Pals League at Monument Bowl last week.

Martin's was paced by Carmen Flores' high game of 193 and high series of 487.

Gen's Garment Lettering trails the two leaders by one-half game.



IN FOR A SCORE is Don Albright, Acalanes forward, despite a belated effort by John Korte of Cupertino. The Dons won both games in the Del Valle tournament, as did host Del Valle. Visitors Skyline and Cupertino were shut out by the two local teams. Sun photo by Bob Yost

Defending Champ Routs Opponent in PH-Y Loop

Defending champion Suburban Bible Cursaders blasted Youth for Christ, 62-10, in the A League of the Pleasant Hill Recreation District's Y Basketball program last week.

It was the second win for the Crusaders in two starts.

Steve Kosach, with 18 points, and Pat Little, with 17, paced the winners. Jeff Miller had six for the losers who couldn't score in the first quarter and trailed 30-2 at the half.

IN OTHER A games, Hillside Covenant edged Clayton Valley Presbyterian, 33-28; Walnut Creek Methodist thumped Hillcrest Congregational, 41-24, and Suburban Bible Knights romped past Christ the King, 42-21.

In the B division, Good Shepherd Lutheran blasted Suburban Bible, 61-11; St. Luke Lutheran routed Hilside Covenant, 65-28; Christ the King nipped St. Mary's Lutheran, 16-14, in a defensive battle, and Martinez First Baptist rapped Our Savior Lutheran, 65-8.

Jim Elrod and Corkey Meinhardt paced Hillside's win with 11 points each. K. Ellingson of Clayton Valley topped both teams with 16 points.

Gary Giese's 13 points was the high-scoring effort for W. C. Methodist. No player on Hillcrest scored more than four points.

Jeff Buzze collected 13 points for the Knights. Rich Urhausen had nine for losing Christ the King.

IN THE B division, Russ Lindgren paced Good Shepherd's win with 16 points. He had help from Jerry Huff who notched 10 and Dave Amos, with nine.

Dave Frank scored 18 points and John Moself, 11, as St. Luke's routed Hillside.

Wayne Street, of Christ the King, had seven points to top both teams in the low-scoring game.

First Baptist had balanced scoring in its win. Jerry Ancroft had 14, John Plumas had 13 and Mike Dimaggio had 12.

Two Tournament Titles Give Cagers 'Prestige'

Prep basketball in the central county area got a big boost and maybe a little "prestige" over the weekend as local teams won two tournament titles and added two consolation honors as well.

The preps are all resting now until after the New Year.

Miramonte, the only local team in the Redwood Empire Invitational Tournament, at Healdsburg sent S.F. Poly home with a sound spanking, 55-45, to win the championship.

Highly-regarded St. Mary's of Berkeley had to settle for third place in the Mid-Valley Classic after being bounced by Pleasant Hill which won the title from Mt. Diablo.

College Park won two games after bowing to a second half rally by St. Mary's to take fifth place.

AT PLEASANTON, Las Lomas, the only local entry, took consolation honors with a pair of wins after a loss to John Swett in its opener. Swett reached the finals before bowing to Albany.

In the first annual Del Valle tournament, Acalanes and Del Valle both won two games in the round-robin affair. Visitors Skyline and Cupertino couldn't come up with a win between them.

San Ramon, host at its own tournament recently, was the only local team not in a tournament over the weekend.

To date, only San Ramon and Las Lomas have losing records.

The Wolves won their first game Tuesday and now are 1-5. The Knights, who broke out of a five-game losing streak at Pleasanton, are now 3-6.

MIRAMONTE is now 6-1, with the last wins all in a row after an opening loss to Berkeley.

County Education Cost $55 Mililon Last Year

Over $55 million were spent on some 120,872 students enrolled in Contra Costa Schools in 1961-62, resulting in an average expenditure of $458.51 for each student.

According to a report released this week by County Superintendent Floyd Marchus this average cost varied in different grade levels.

Average cost per elementary pupil was $393; per high school student, $548; per unified district student, $455; and per student in the Contra Costa Junior College District, $600.

BY INDIVIDUAL district, the cost per pupil ranged from $328 to $812, the annual financial report indicates.

Both figures occurred among the elementary districts, which reflect greater variations in enrollment and assessed valuation than at other levels.

The highest assessed valuation per pupil is more than 24 times greater than the lowest: $99,846 in the Selby district vs. $4104 in the Vine Hill district.

To indicate the relation of local tax resources to expenditures and tax rates, the two districts provide a striking example, members said. Vine Hill spent on each child the amount of $335, Selby $812.

Yet, the tax rate in the Selby district was 68 cents compared to Vine Hill's $1.80.

"AMONG THE six high school districts the variation in per capita wealth, per capita expenditure and tax rate was: $23,914 to $76,555 assessed valuation; $520 to $708 expenditure; and 77 cents to $1.75," the superintendent reported.

Unified district finances show a wider spread than high school, primarily because of extremes of tax resources:

Mt. Diablo has $6121 in assessed valuation to support each elementary grade child, as compared to Antioch's $23,648 and Pittsburg's $27,442.

High school is supported, respectively, with assessed valuation per student of $19,939, $63,027 and $90,230.

COST PER STUDENT—combined elementary and high — ranges from $414 to $580 and tax rates from $2.38 to $4.28, with Mt. Diablo low in expenditure but high in tax rate.

Contra Costa Junior College District's assessed valuation per student is $177,189, its per capita expenditure is $600 and tax rate, 41 cents.

Included in per capita cost are: administration, salaries, instructional materials, health services, operation and maintenance of school plant, fixed charges — insurance and retirement — and transportation.

Deep Channel Under Study, Baldwin Says

Studies which could lead to deepening of the Upper Bay shipping channel serving eastern Contra Costa will be completed by May or June, according to Congressman John Baldwin.

The survey, undertaken by the U.S. Army Engineering Corps, is expected to conclude with a report "favorable" to the channel work, Baldwin told the Walnut Creek Area Chamber of Commerce recently.

If the report is in fact favorable, legislative action could be taken in Congress to obtain necessary appropriations.

THE PROJECT, which would cost over $40 million, would involve deepening the main channel to 45 feet from San Francisco to Pittsburg, 40 feet to Antioch, and 35 feet to Stockton.

The confressman also expressed concern over the problem of salt water intrusion into the Delta area.

"Water from the Contra Costa Delta area is the life-blood of the easterly portion of this county, and something has to be done to protect our interests," Baldwin said.

Both Baldwin and Congressman John McFall of San Joaquin have supported a Breau of Reclamation study which might lead to recommendations on the problem next year.

ONE SOLUTION, Baldwin said, might be construction of a freshwater storage reservoir on Kellogg Creek. Such a reservoir could accumulate a standby supply of good water during the winter for release during summer months.

The congressman also told the chamber of background and financing of the Zone 3-B flood control project contemplated by the Army Engineer Corps for the Walnut Creek watershed.

He pointed out that federal aid on such large projects indirectly assists local agencies on lesser projects by freeing local funds for the latter.

DVC Auditorium Has Faculty Members' Okay

The drive for a community auditorium to be located on Diablo Valley College campus which was proposed last week by the school's paper, has the approval and blessings of the faculty, said John Kelly, assistant dean of instruction.

Kelly emphasized, however, that the junior college board had not expressed itself on the matter.

"An auditorium capable of seating from 1500 to 2000 people for such cultural community events as symphonies, operas and ballets properly belongs here," said Kelly.

"THE COMMUNITY would benefit from the money college-sponsored activities in such a building, and from the fact that we would provide a pesmanent staff for such things as cleaning, scheduling and policing the building."

At present, all cultural activities of the college are held in the gymnasium. Discussing a recent Actors Workshop performance held there last week, the Viking Reporter, Diablo Valley newspaper, deplored the use of the gym for such a "high caliber" event.

"We envision a very versatile building," the editorial said, "to be used by both community and student body alike. To be financed both through the college and the community. This task we consider to be something of immediate value."

Kelly pointed to a similar drive successfully completed at Los Altos Foothill College.

He said Diablo Valley College would eventually have such an auditorium without community support at a much later date. "But we are talking about possibly one million dollars, and we don't have that kind of money —or will we have it in the forseeable future," he said.

Plans for a community cultural center near the junior college were incorporated in the park and bond issue that failed to pass in the recent elections.

Areas served by the proposed center would include Pleasant Hill, Martinez, Lafayette, Concord and Walnut Creek, he said.

Firm Cleans Up At Christmas: With No Charge

Most merchants "clean up" at Christmastime, when retail sales hit their peak. But a merchant with a new twist on the Christmas clean up is the Marshall Steel Company, pioneer Eastbay Laundry and dry cleaning firm.

Every year Marshall Steel offers to dry clean, free of charge, any clothing to be used for charitable distribution during the Christmas season.

This week Al Knight and Fred Conover, local representatives of the firm, again invited individuals as well as charitable institutions to bring such clothing to any Marshall Steel store.

The clothes will be dry cleaned and delivered to the designated charity in the Eastbay without charge.

Last Christmas Marshall Steel cleaned over 4000 garments, which were delivered to over 75 charitable institutions.

Temple Isaiah Service Tonight

Rabbi David Robins, Cantor Henri Goldberg and the center mixed choir will officiate at services tonight at 8:30 at Temple Isaiah, 3800 Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

David Cronin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cronin, will be Bar-Mitzvah and a reception following the services will be given by the parents.

This service will usher in the eight-day observance of Chanukah or the "Feast of Lights."

Watchtower Assembly Opens Today

A three-day assembly sponsored by the Watchtower and Tract Society of New York begins today in Richmond, according to Walnut Creek Jehovah's Witnesses minister V. Lloyd Larey.

Artists Name New Officers

New officers of the Diablo Art Association were installed at a recent "Old Board-New Board" meeting held at the Nut Bowl in Pleasant Hill.

Officers for the new year are: President, Katy Madsen; vice-president, Jim Little; secretary, Phyllis Chamberlain; treasurer, Irving Townsend and exhibit chariman, Nate Stillman.

Others installed included: Program chairman, Mona Williams; membership chairman, Mary Way; publicity chairman, Pam Della and bulletin chairman, Fred Pring.

Regular meetings of the group will resume next month, the president-elect announced.

Many Benefit From Scouts' Work

Person to person service projects are being emphasized by all 232 Brownie and Girl Scout Troops in the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council during the Christmas season this year, according to Mrs. Kenneth Hallstone, president of the council.

For the fifth year, many Brownie troops have made Christmas stars with a variety of sewing articles, such as buttons, threads, snaps, zippers and needles.

These stars will be sent through the American Friends Service Committee to families overseas that are in need of such articles, after they decorate the tree at Casita Castana.

A number of Intermediate troops have decorated Christmas boxes for use at Juvenile Hall in Contra Costa County. Other Intermediate troops have donated small gifts for the girls and boys at Juvenile Hall.

Elderly women and men in convalescent and nursing homes in Lafayette, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek and Danville areas have been "adopted" by many troops who will present them with small gifts, cookies, and other treats during the holidays.

Some of the older Intermediate troops will carol and present short plays at the homes.

The ill and infirm at the County Hospital in Martinez will be serenaded with carols and small gifts by several troops of older girls.

Children are being remembered with games made by one troop and books donated by another troop.

Needy families have been "adopted" by some troops that have collected food, clothing and toys for them. Care packages are going overseas to needy families through the generosity of a few troops that donated their troop calendar bonus to the project.

St. Mary's Centennial Plans

In the first months of 1963, St. Mary's College centennial events will include the San Francisco civic banquet, the sixth symposium for business and industrial executives, and a series of lectures by two internationally known economists.

The San Francisco civic banquet, January 26, will commemorate the founding of the college in 1863 in San Francisco.

To be held in the Grand Ball Room of the Sheraton-Palace Hotel, the banquet is sponsored by the St. Mary's Alumni Association.

The program will include greetings to the college from dignitaries present, remarks by James D. Zellerbach, general chairman of centennial observances, Brother T. Michael, F.S.C., president, and Archbishop Joseph T. McGucken.

THE SPEAKERS and educators on the program will be concerned with the centennial theme: "The Liberal Arts: Language of Free Men."

Chairman of the banquet is Lawrence Mana ('38), chief assistant deputy city attorney of San Francisco.

The sixth symposium for business and industrial executives will be held January 30-31 on the campus. Over 200 executives will explore the theme "The Economics of Growth: An Overview of the Population Expansion."

Two of the participants will be economic experts from England and India who will present a series of eight lectures in addition to their symposium talks.

Dr. Colin Clark, director of the institute for agricultural research, Oxford University, England; and Eric P. W. da Costa, editor, the Eastern Economist, New Delhi, India, will present international views on population problems.

JACKSON and Perkins and Co., the world's largest rose breeders have named a new rise strain in honor of the college centennial.

Planting ceremonies for the St. Mary's College will be held January 17 under the sponsorship of the student centennial committee. The roses will adorn the campus gardens fronting the college chapel.

Another flower display in honor of the college will be planted in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco from January 21 through February 3. The City Park and Recreation Department will arrange a garden depicting the college chapel and centennial.

Civic banquets in honor of the college will be held throughout the state.

Dr. E. Wilson Lyon, president of Pomona College, will address the Los Angeles banquet February 16 at the California Club. James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, archbishop of Los Angeles will be present to give his greetings to the college.

Brother Michael will attend the civic banquets throughout the state including Los Angeles, Sacramento, Bakersfield, Stockton, as well as San Francisco.

Among the distinguished men who will give public lectures during the first month of 1963, are Donald Justice, poet and teacher, who will speak, January 9, on the creative process; Mark Schorer, professor of English, University of California, who will speak, January 11, on censorship; and Father Ernan McMullin, professor of philosophy, Notre Dame University, February 7.

Other events up-coming will be a lecture by Eugene Burdick, author of "Fail Safe", and a symposium on the contemporary novel in early March.

Wayne Webster Is Training in Navy

Wayne Smith Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Webster, 20 Van Ripper Lane, Orinda, enlisted in the U.S. Navy recently.

At the U.S. Navy Recruiting Branch Station, Concord, he enlisted in the U.S. Navy High School Graduate Training Program.

Bailey Wins

Robert Bailey, 158 Canon Drive, Orinda, received honorable mention in the Halo Candle Contest held recently at San Jose State College.

The Halo Sales Corporation, a San Francisco firm, offered the contest for new design for Christmas and barbecue candles.

Orinda Man Is Named to College Trustee Board

Two Bay Area executives, Clay P. Bedford and John G. Bannister, have been named to the board of trustees of St. Mary's College, it was announced by Brother T. Jerome, F.S.C., chairman.

Bannister, chairman of the board and director of Chris Craft Industries, Inc., is a 1935 graduate of the college.

He has been a regent of the college since 1960.

Bannister makes his home in Orinda with his wife Marian and their two children.

The new regent has been with Chris Craft since 1938 when it was the National Automotive Fibres, and later NAFI Corporation.

IN ADDITION, Bannister is vice-president and director of four television stations in Oregon, Texas and California and is a director of NAFCO Oil & Gas in Dallas, Texas.

What Are '62 Miramonte Grads Doing?

A study by the consulting department at Miramonte High School shows that 1962 June graduates of that school have embraced on the following activities:

Eighty-three per cent of the 1962 graduating class is attending some type of post high educational program. Fifty-five per cent of the total in post-high school programs are attending a four-year college, 25 per cent are enrolled in two-year colleges.

The largest single contingent going on to college is attending Diablo Valley Junior College, with the University of California at Berkeley, San Jose State College, University of California at Santa Barbara and Oregon State following in that order.

Miramonte gradautes this year have enrolled in more than 49 colleges across the country.

Of the total graduating class of 258 seniors, 245 responded to the survey. Other survey statistics show that seven per cent of the seniors are currently employed, eight per cent are in the armed forces. Two per cent have married.

The survey was directed by Lloyd Hunt, head of the Miramonte counseling department.

Nejedly Gets Writ of Review In Welfare Case

A writ of review has been granted the county against the Industrial Accident Commission in a case involving repayment of fraudently received welfare funds.

David Wilkerson, formerly of Walnut Creek, had been temporarily disabled and had applied for welfare funds under the Aid to Needy Children Program.

According to the district attorney's office, the Wilkerson family received over $1000 from the county under the program.

Wilkerson, the office said, was subsequently charged with welfare fraud, to which he plead guilty.

Following the fraud case, a Industrial Accident Commission referee granted the county $450 of its $1097 lien against Wilkerson.

In his decision the referee stated that the "applicant needs the money worse than the county does."

District Attorney John A. Nejedly took issue with the conclusion, maintaining that it was "grossly unfair to the rights of the taxpayers and an abuse of discretion."

The conclusion, Nejedly went on, was "not in accord with the basic concept of fairness to all before the law whether they be an individual or a county.

Legal proceedings undertaken by Nejedly resulted in issuance of the writ, announced last week.

The matter will be heard in the District Court of Appeal in San Francisco, January 4, 1963.

Pack 225 Has Annual Party

Cub Scout Pack 225 held its annual Christmas party at Glorietta School recently.

The boys made Christmas tree ornaments and decorated the tree in the Glorietta all-purpose room. The tree was provided by the Glorietta Parents' Club.

Each boy brought a gift for a needy child. The gifts will be given to the children at the Sonoma State Mental Hospital.

Community singing was led by Jim Mitchell, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Ross Van Dyke.

The climax of the evening was the appearance of Santa Claus. He presented all of the Cubs and children with candy canes.

The party closed with the singing of "Deck the Halls" and "Silent Night."

Work on High School Site Set: $2.5 Million

About $2.5 million will be spent for additional construction on the five high school sites in the Acalanes Union District by 1965-66.

District trustees came up with this estimate Wednesday after reviewing their five-year building program which will draw on $3.9 million in bond monies authorized last year.

To meet enrollment increases and the need for adequate school facilities, the following construction is contemplated:

ACALANES High: Gymnasium, paved court area, audio visual service area and tennis courts.

Las Lomas: Improved student lunch facility and three classrooms and expanded locker space for boys' physical education.

Miramonte: Lecture - music building, stage lighting and tennis courts.

Del Valle: five classrooms, partial allocations for a pool, tennis courts and bleachers.

CAMPOLINDO: Science classroom wing, site work, multi-use room and shops and 14 new classrooms.

Additional capital outlay is projected for furniture, equipment and other district facilities.

The program calls for a buliding outlay of $1.24 million next year, $703,000 in 1963-64, $170,000 in 1964-65, and $309,500 in 1965-66.

Ross Reagan, assistant superintendent for business, said that construction is also predicated on a continuing 5 per cent annual increase in the district's assessed valuation.

SUCH CAN be expected, he said, from increases in the past several years.

In other action, the trustees authorized the purchase of 90-day treasury notes with $600,000 available from sale of bonds.

The sum is obligated for payment for current district construction.

In the meantime, the district should realize an additional income of $1200 in interest on the money while it is held by the district.

Crusaders Miss Goal, Surpass Other Counties

While the Contra Costa United Crusade fell $1252 short of its goal this year, local volunteers are celebrating a victory over other counties in the crusade.

The local crusaders brought in 99.54 per cent of Contra Costa's fair share quota, topping campaign results in neighboring counties.

The total fund—major support of community agencies throughout the Bay Area—ended up at 98 per cent with $11,020,000, bettering last year's record campaign by $10,000.

All sums, including Contra Costa's figures, included cash contributions, individual pledges and deferred payments.

In the mid-county area, Pleasant Hill is the only community over the top in residential campaigning, now at 269.3 per cent with $2373 contributed.

Other residential collections show Orinda at 98.6 per cent with $8654; Lafayette at 92.5 per cent with $9237; and Walnut Creek at 75.5 per cent with $4151.

In the business division, Orinda-Lafayette campaigners have $2095 for 86.3 per cent, and the Walnut Creek-Pleasant Hill-Danville corps have $2975 for 63.2 per cent.

Fund volunteer leaders began dividing the $11 million by granting allocations for the 1962 operating expenses of more than 260 agencies.

With the same amount to divide as last year, allocations to individual agencies are expected to be the same as for 1962 budgets. Contra Costa's share amounts to some $770,000.

In county campaigning, Contra Costa's 99.54 per cent mark was followed by Alameda County, traditional front-runner, with 97.7 per cent; San Francisco and Marin combined counties with 95.3 per cent and San Mateo with 94.3 per cent.

Garden CHECK-LIST

PREPARED BY THE CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION OF NURSERYMEN

1. Start your winter spray program for fruit trees. Ask your nurseryman if you're in doubt about the proper sprays.
2. Most bareroot stock arrives on the market this week or next. Fruit and shade trees, as well as bareroot roses, are best planted during bareroot season.
3. Perennial vegetables such as asparagus and artichoke may be set out this month and next.
4. Deciduous fruit trees may be pruned now. So, too, may grapes.
5. Holly and other berried shrubs may be purchased now and kept in their containers for indoor decoration during the holiday season.

The price of power is responsibility for the public good.
—Winthrop W. Aldrich

Busy Bareroot Season

For gardeners who come from colder climates, the phenomenon of a California winter is twofold.

First, there's the miracle of winter bloom from annuals, shrubs and trees. Then, there is the pace of garden life. Far from grinding to a halt, garden activity steps along at a lively clip, as the winter months usher in one of our busiest planting seasons, bar none.

The reason is that winter brings with it the bareroot planting season in California, which means that the months from mid-December to mid-March are the best to plant any number of dormant trees and shrubs. Most fruit trees, many shade trees, deciduous flowering shrubs and vines, berries and grapes all can be most easily and economically planted during winter.

ROSES TOP the list of plants which are available now in harvest, not only the two new All-America Award winners—Tropicana and Royal Highness—but favorite roses of past years, including bush, pillar and climbing types. Other dormant shrubs to be planted now are flowering quince, lilac, weigela, mock orange and forsythia.

Most of our deciduous shade trees are also planted during the bareroot season. A partial list of favorites would include sweet gum, maidenhair, weeping willow, sycamore, tulip tree, Modesto ash and Moraine locust. A local member of the California Association of Nurserymen can help you choose the best shade tree for your garden.

MANY OF the best ornamental flowering trees are deciduous which means you'll find them bareroot in nurseries now. These include dogwood, saucer magnolia, hawthorn, silk tree and the flowering fruits such as Japanese cherry, flowering peach and crabapple. Here again you should ask a CAN nurseryman to recommend varieties.

If you long for a home fruit orchard, now is the best time to start it. Apples, pears, apricots, peaches, plums, cherries, plus pecans, almonds and walnuts are recommended for planting during winter. The advice of a local CAN member is indispensible to the would-be orchardist for some fruit trees do better in one area than in others, and while you may know that peaches do well in your corner of the state, you might choose a variety that would rather be elsewhere.

ANOTHER POINT to consider when you plant a home orchard is how many trees your garden can accommodate. Temptation is to plant more than you should. When temptation is strong and space is crowded, your best bet is to use dwarf fruit trees or trees on which several varieties have been budded to a single root stock.

The thing to remember about dwarf trees is that while their overall size is considerably less than normal, their fruit is of standard size and quality in every respect.

Most bareroot trees and shrubs need some minor pruning at planting time. The best procedure to follow here, if you're not sure of yourself, is to let your nurseryman show you how to go about it.

The roots, when you buy dormant trees or shrubs will usually be wrapped in a protective covering to keep them from drying out. The ideal practice is to plant them as soon as you can after getting them home. If there is any delay—say one to several days—do what nurserymen call "heeling in"—that is, dig a shallow trench and bury the roots with moist soil until you are ready to plant them in a permanent location.

OCCASIONALLY some of the smaller roots will have dried out or broken. These should be pruned out before planting, and all roots should be shortened to about eight or 10 inches. Here again, ask a nurseryman to guide you.

The planting hole need not be overly large if soil is fertile and loose. Where the soil is poor, however, large planting holes are a must. The soil, moreover, should be removed and mixed with compost or manure to insure that the young shrub or tree will have an easy time of it at the start.

Sun Home and Garden

Azaleas Give Off Season Color

If you think azaleas bloom only in spring, take a look at your local nursery this month or next. You'll find an unseasonal show of color from these favorite shrubs—a show that will last from now through winter and into spring.

The California Association of Nurserymen reports that these early azaleas are mostly of the Belgian Indica type, many of which give both fall and spring bloom. Here in northern California, they show color as early as September and bloom well until weather cools down. Then they taper off, only to come on strong again in spring.

OCCASIONALLY YOU will also find one of the Southern Indicas, or Sun Azaleas, blooming before Christmas, but normally these are later.

Since early azaleas bloom with chrysanthemums and geraniums, they face some pretty stiff color competition in the garden. For this reason, the gardener should exercise discretion in how he uses them. They mey be featured in beds by themselves or with complementary flowers such as cyclamen and late blooming tuberous begonias. They may be left in pots, too, and moved around as the fancy strikes you. You can use them indoors until the flowers fade, but they will not bloom over as long a period this way.

AZALEAS BEING acid-loving plants, should have plenty of peat moss dug into the soil. C.A.N. members tell us that azaleas can be grown in pure peat, so long as the peat is moist when the shrubs are planted and kept moist at all times. Dry moss will tend to extract moisture from the root system, so be careful.

Azaleas have practically no troubles other than an occasional need for iron. This need shows up as a yellowing of the leaves, and when you notice it, use an iron chelate, which is soluble in water and remains dissolved until the root system takes it up. Several brands are on the market.

Feeding is best done in spring and summer, starting shortly after bloom has faded. Make three or four monthly applications of fish emulsion or any acid fertilizer. Alternating these two types of food is a common practice with nurserymen.

IMPERIAL WALL SYSTEM

Danish artistry, constructed of genuine Bangkok Teak veneer on solid laminated wood core 35½" in width. All shelves and cabinets have beautifully sculptured solid teak edges. Because of our "Direct Import" policy, this magnificent wall system is no higher in price than any other Danish imported wall system and, by comparison, far superior in quality.

IMPORTED DUX ORIGINALS

The famous DUX lounge chair designed by Folke Ohlsson has been adapted by the designer in creating this new reclining and rocking chair. With the simple mechanism, the chair will adjust to eight positions or to rock. The cradle is available in either solid walnut or solid teak as is the matching ottoman which also adjusts.

A REVOLUTIONARY ACHIEVEMENT

the magnificent Magnavox

new ASTRO-SONIC Stereo High Fidelity

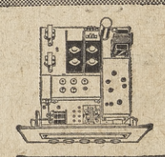
This astounding development exceeds all previous accomplishments in the perfect recreation of music — Stereophonics from FM radio as well as records with incredible fidelity, to give you the greatest musical entertainment you have ever experienced — and all this without a single tube!

The Astro-Sonic has such great tonal dimension it can fill a concert hall like a full symphony orchestra — and in your home can "whisper" the full beauty of music, or shake the walls with the crescendo of a great symphony.

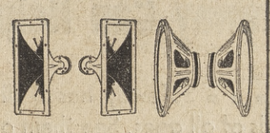
Vacuum tubes and component damaging heat — the source of most service troubles — are eliminated. The Astro-Sonic is so reliable that the parts are guaranteed for five years — twenty times as long as the standard industry guarantee for tube sets.

The Modern Classic, model 667 in natural or sable walnut, $550

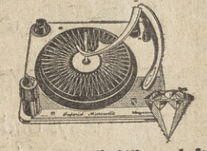
Also in gleaming ebony, $575.



Now solid state circuitry—a by-product of the billion dollar space age—gives ten times the efficiency of a comparable tube set—uses but one-tenth the power—no more than a small light bulb.



Now, large exponential treble horns—ten times as efficient as conventional cone speakers—reproduce treble tones without a blemish of distortion. High efficiency 15" bass woofers give you bass definition you have never heard before.



A new "Micromatic 60" record player completely eliminates pitch distortion—for the turntable speed is as accurate as your electric clock! The new pickup plays at only 1/10 ounce touch, banishing record and stylus wear—therefore the diamond stylus is guaranteed for ten years and your records can last a lifetime.

Come in for a thrilling demonstration of this Stereo marvel. Choose from a variety of styles and finishes. Other Stereo consoles as low as $149.50

TOMORROW NEVER COMES

PHONE US TODAY ABOUT LISTING YOUR PROPERTY FOR SALE!

WE SAY WHAT WE'LL DO!

We tell you in advance what price you can expect to get. We don't name an "extra-fancy" price just to get your listing and hope that you'll come down afterwards. We don't promise the moon and later deliver only a handful of stardust. We come down to "brass tacks" right away, and when we say we'll get you $15,000 you can bank on it. It'll be a cold day in July when we tell you $20,000 for a $15,000 home just to get the listing!

WE DO WHAT WE SAY!

Put a "proper price" on your home . . . that's the way to sell it quickly. Ask for TOO MUCH and you frighten people away! Ask to TOO LITTLE and before you know it, it's been grabbed off by someone who re-sells it later for a big profit. There's no . . . SUBSTITUTE FOR EXPERIENCE in selling Real Estate. We know the questions and answers that arise in the sale of property. This knowledge is at your disposal.

Contra Costans Big Bond Buyers

November sales of U.S. savings bonds brought totals for the first 11 months of the year to $118 million in Contra Costa County.

E. M. Downer, Jr., volunteer county savings bond chairman, announced that $390,445 in bonds were sold this month.

The 11-month total, he said, represents an increase of over $4 million dollars over sales for the same period last year.

STATE CALVES

Many of the calves raised in California are turned out to pasture at the age of four to six months and are fed no supplements, not even stock salt, the University of California has reported.

Post Office Bans Tiny, Non-Rectangular Letter

To speed processing and delivery of mail, the United States Post Office is cracking down on miniscule letter sizes and missives other than rectangular.

Effective January 1, 1963, letters less than 3 by 4 and one-quarter inches will not be accepted for mailing ,according to Lafayette Postmaster H. T. "Doc" Crandell.

Nor will any post office handle letters that are not of a rectangular shape, the postmaster said.

The following week, on January 7, new postal rates will go into effect, the postmaster also announced.

Rates for first class mail, airmail and post cards will all go up 1 cent on that date to 5 cents, 8 cents and 4 cents, respectively.

Bulk mailing rates will also begin a three-year rate increase of one-eighth cents each year.

For big mailers, there will be increases other than those in the mailing rates.

As of Janauary 1, the calendar year bulk mailing fee will increase from $20 to $30.

Cost of permit will go from $10 to $15 at the same time, Crandell said.

Did You Get Your Annual Holiday Seals?

"We have been getting several telephone calls a day from concerned persons in our county who failed to receive their 1962 Christmas seals," said B. J. Callaghan, seal campaign chairman.

"These calls are usually from people who have recently moved to Contra Costa County and are not yet on our mailing list.

"However, this is not always the case. Some calls are from faithful contributors of many years who for some reason or other did not receive their seals.

"This is obviously due to an oversight and is certainly not intentional.

"To all of these neglected individuals, we offer our deepest apologies and urge them to call the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Contra Costa, at 935-0472 and they will be sent to them by mail or pick them up personally at our office, 105 Astrid Drive, Pleasant Hill.

"I hope our Christmas Seals will serve as a welcome reminder that the fine work being carried on by your local Christmas Seal Association depends upon all of us.

March of Dimes Campaign Will Be Led by Marchus

Dr. Floyd Marchus has been named Contra Costa County chairman of the 1963 March of Dimes.

Dr. Marchus is the Contra Costa County superintendent of schools. He will lead the annual campaign in January.

Marchus said the new March of Dimes has accepted additional responsibilities and will conduct a campaign to raise funds to continue the patient care of polio victims and in addition will also be raising funds to support research and patient care for birth defects, arthritis and central nervous disorders.

These have been added to the work accomplished by the National Foundation.

He said that money from other March of Dimes campaigns in other years was responsible for research that led to the discovery of the Salk and Sabin vaccines and that this dramatic demonstration of the use of funds will add to the acceptance of the 1963 March of Dimes.

The wide use of the Sabin oral vaccine during K.O. Polio Sundays in this area gave a lot of publicity to the financial support delivered by the March of Dimes, all of the research money that made the Sabin oral vaccine possible came from contributions to the March of Dimes.

Marchus also pointed out that the research done by the March of Dimes money has prevented such tragedies as the publicized side effects of the drug Thalidomide.

He said that such tragedies can be prevented by good research into all the causes of birth defects and that money donated to the March of Dimes will help in this research as well as provide the proper patient care to children born with birth defects.

He said that grants have already been made by Contra Costa County Chapter to Children's Hospital at San Francisco and the Children's Hospital of the East Bay. The expanded program now has centers affiliated with nearly one-half of all the medical schools in the nation.

Marchus expressed great hope that new discoveries in the field of arthriti and central nervous disorders, as well as birth defects, will be accomplished and eliminated in the same manner that polio has been defeated.

He said that the new Salk Institute at San Diego expects to open in 1963 and that important discoveries are expected from this March of Dimes supported institution.

This will be the 25th anniversary of the March of Dimes. The theme for the January campaign will be "Give, for the life of a child." The campaign will begin January 1, and conclude January 31.

SHEEP WATER

Drinking water for sheep should not contain more than two per cent salt, Australian researchers have found. Better yet, they advise keeping the level below one and one-half per cent.

City Discusses Footing Half Costs on Sidewalks

A two-point program for the installation of sidewalks in Pleasant Hill with the city footing up to 50 per cent of the cost was proposed by Mayor Lenard Grote at last week's city council meeting.

He suggested that the city budget annually set a sum for sidewalk funds. The money would be divided into two funds, one, in cases where the volume of traffic and the volume of school children warranted it, the city would pay half of the expenses necessary to "reduce the traffic hazards to the children."

The money would be apportioned on a priority basis set up by the city engineer after conducting safety surveys.

THE REMAINING 50 per cent would come from payments from property owners through an assessment district.

The other fund would be an "encouragement" fund to develop sidewalks throughout the city.

The city would pay 15 per cent of the costs, on a first-come-first-serve voluntary basis, with fronting property owners paying the remainder.

On hand to offer technical advice on financing was Attorney Philip Assaf, of San Mateo, an expert on assesment districts for sidewalks on major streets near schools, regardless of protests.

A four-fifths vote on the council would be required, he added.

Where Are the Crowded Schools? Here Is Survey

Contra Costa County's 119,000 elementary and high school students enrolled in regular classes curently occupy 179 school buildings, which house all the way from 32 children at Selby to 2953 students in Richmond High School.

There are 135 elementary schools, 12 intermediates and 11 junior high schools. High schools number 21, of which one, De Anza of the Richmond Union High School District, is a junior-senior high.

According to the office of county superintendent, Floyd Marchus, the schools with largest enrollment per building are concentrated in the Richmond and Mt. Diablo areas.

The two areas also have between them nearly half the school buildings in the county. Excluding special schools, Mt. Diablo Unified District has 42 and the two Richmond districts, elementary and high school, 34.

Ygnacio Valley, with 1346 children, has the lergest enrollment among the county's elementary schools. Another Mt. Diablo unified school, Oak Grove, is the largest intermediate, with 1095.

The largest concentration of student population in junior and senior high schools occurs in Richmond: 1714 at Portola Junior High and 2953 at Richmond High.

Book Fair Nets Library $120

Fairview's fifth annual Book Fair completed a successful run recently.

More than 250 books were sold.

The school library netted $120 as a result of the sale.

Alfred Hitchcock stories proved to be the best sellers, according to Mrs. Cady, school librarian.

The books were furnished by the Seven Arts Book Store. There were 300 displayed during the fair.

Mrs. Edwin Floyd was in charge of the fair and Mrs. Richard Maloney supplied and served refreshments to fair visitors.
